U.K. Troops Arrested On Cyprus

War Office Reveals Army Camp 'Incident'

LONDON (Reuters)—The War Office announced tonight that 21 junior non-commissioned officers and men of the British army are under close arrest as the result of an "incident" on Monday night on Cyprus.

The war office said the arrests followed "a noisy and undisciplined disturbance."

The announcement said the disturbance took place two days ago in a Royal Army Service Corps unit.

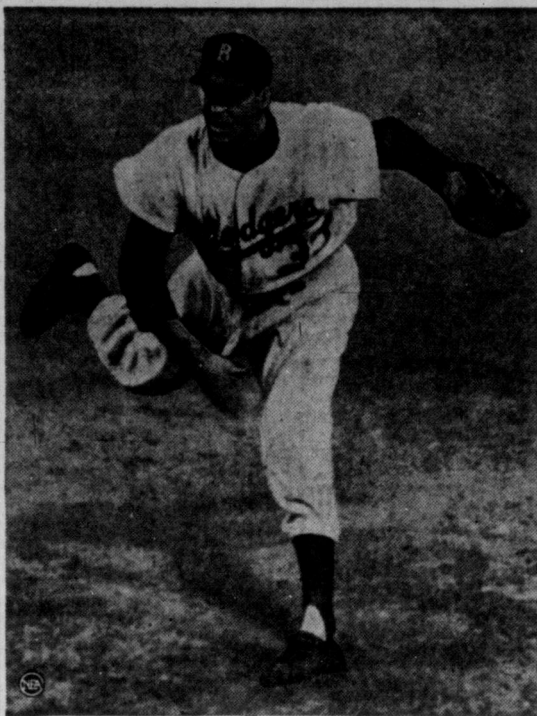

Reports have been widespread in recent weeks that reservists called back into service because of the Suez crisis are bored and discontented. War Minister Anthony Head last week denied that any serious trouble or "near mutiny" existed.

CBC Curbs Urged

OTTAWA (BUP)—The country's private broadcasters went before the Fowler commission today to resume presentation of their arguments for stricter curbs on the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's regulatory powers and more freedom for themselves.

NICOSIA, Cyprus (CP)

Greek-Cypriot officials charged today that several thousand people face starvation in a five-day-old curfew ordered by British authorities as reports circulated that many others are going on a hunger strike.

The curfew, confining 15,000 persons to their houses in the Greek quarter of Nicosia, was lifted for two hours today to permit people to buy food in street markets.

A whisper went round the old city from roof to roof: "We are boycotting the food."

One vegetable seller said: "We have sold hardly anything today—I should say even less than one-tenth of yesterday's sales have been registered."

The boycott is believed partly due to a general cash shortage—especially among wage-earning workers—and also in protest against the continuance of the curfew.

A trade union official said several thousand in the curfew area, deprived of their work, have no money left.

British authorities today reported the arrest of three Greek Cypriots and said they were suspected of planning to bomb a police station.

10 Workmen Killed As Building Collapses

JACKSON, Mich. (AP)—A three-storey office building under construction thundered to the ground today and police inspector John O'Connor said at least 10 workmen were killed. Thirteen men were taken to hospitals. An undetermined number of others were believed still trapped.

Veteran Brilliant To Whip Yanks 6-3

BROOKLYN (UP)—Swarthy Sal (The Barber) Maglie pitched with his heart, his head and a weary arm today to defeat the mighty New York Yankees 6-3 in the opening game of the world series.

Maglie was assisted by a three-run cushion from the home-run bat of Gil Hodges. The 39-year-old Maglie was regarded as a "washed up has-been" last spring. He thrilled a crowd of 34,479 which included President Eisenhower, and the Duke of Windsor, as he yielded two home runs, but continually pitched his way out of other heart-stopping Yankee threats to complete a dramatic victory.

The scowling Barber, staggering on the verge of a knock-out at least three times, yielded a two-run homer to Mickey Mantle and one to scrappy Billy Martin. But his underdog teammates came through with a pair themselves, one by Jackie Robinson and the three-run blast by Hodges. The veteran right-hander took it from there on.

STRUCK OUT 10

The unsmiling Maglie gave up nine big hits to booming Yankee bats, but he also fanned 10 menacing Bronx Bombers—three more than he ever had in a regular season game.

His mates quickly proved once again that Ebbets Field is a southpaw's graveyard by pounding little Whitey Ford into defeat after a three-inning stint in which he gave up six of the nine Brooklyn hits and five of the six runs.

The Yankees bounced into a quick two-run lead in the first inning.

It came on Mantle's booming shot over the right field wall with Country Slaughter on first.

The predominantly Brooklyn crowd had been comparatively silent until Robinson led off the bottom of the second with his homer into the lower left field stands. The cascade of sound continued as Hodges—the goat of the 1952 series when he went hitless in 21 times at bat—singled into centre.

Carl Furillo tied it up then with a double into left centre, Hodges scoring all the way from first as the ball skidded away from the pursuing Mantle. Furillo made it to third, tagging on Roy Campanella's fly to right, but died there.

Maglie took plenty of time between pitches he choked off one Yankee threat in the third when Hank Bauer and Slaughter opened with back-to-back singles. But Maglie fired three strikes past Mantle, the major league triple-crown champion, and then got Yogi Berra a pop and Moose Skowron to force Slaughter at second.

SECOND INNING

Yankees—Martin fouled to Campanella about 30 feet behind the plate. Carey hit, swung at Maglie's 1 and 2 pitch but was called out on strikes anyway. Ford also went down swinging to become Maglie's fourth strikeout of the game.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Dodgers—Robinson rifled a 1 and 2 pitch into the lower left field stands for the first Dodger hit, cutting the Yankees' margin to 2-1.

Hodges dropped a single into short centrefield in front of the fast-charging Mantle for the Dodgers' second straight hit.

Furillo lined a 3 and 2 pitch into left centrefield and Hodges scored the tying run all the way from first when the ball bounced away from Mantle. It was scored as a double for Furillo, with no error for Mantle. It was scored as a double for Mantle.

Campanella flied to Bauer against the scoreboard in right field, Furillo taking third after the catch.

Johnny Kucks was warming up in the Yankee bullpen as Amoroso stepped to the plate for the Dodgers.

School Advisory Board Failure UBCM Official Tells Civic Chiefs

PENTICTON (CP)—The executive director of the Union of B.C. Municipalities today attacked the effectiveness of the provincial school curriculum advisory board.

T. R. B. Adams, UBCM member on the advisory body, told the union's 53rd annual convention that the board "has little real influence with the department of education."

"I find it difficult," he said, "to recall any major work which the board has accomplished during the past year which could be considered as a recommendation to the department, or which in any way could have any influence on the department."

"The advisory board has had the opportunity of listening to some of the most outstanding educators in this province," he added.

Mr. Adams explained that the 24-member board was set up

Recounts Loom In 3 Ridings

VANCOUVER (CP)—With some results still to come, final vote counts have left British Columbia party standings unchanged since the September 19 election.

Recounts may be asked for in three ridings. Final returns have not been received from Atlin, where W. J. Asselstine, Social Credit, led Frank Calder, CCF, 375 to 185, with 12 out of 17 polls counted.

Closest win came in Grand Forks-Greenwood, where Mrs. Lois Haggen, CCF candidate, came out 15 votes ahead of her Social Credit runner-up, H. Crae Dawson. A recount may be requested.

In Skeena, Hugh A. Stewart, Social Credit, scored a 60-vote win over Frank Howard, CCF.

PRAVDA PRAISES TITO; SAYS RIFT CLOSING

(UP and AP Dispatches)

LONDON — Moscow radio, quoting a Pravda editorial, said today Russia and Yugoslavia are "getting closer together" in its first report on relations between the two nations since the Yugoslav president went to the Soviet Union last week.

The broadcast backed up diplomatic reports from Communist East Europe that Russia is attempting to win Tito's support for its strong, new penetration of the Middle East. It praised Yugoslav support of Egypt's takeover of the Suez Canal.

The statement by the organ of the Russian party took on special significance because of the talks now going on in the Crimea between President Tito of Yugoslavia and Kremlin leaders.

Tory MP Drive for Diefenbaker May Swing Hees on to Bandwagon

By ALAN DONNELLY

Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP)—A Diefenbaker-for-leader movement, born in the ranks of Progressive Conservative Commons members, has come into the open on the heels of the announcement that a party leadership convention will be held in Ottawa in the week of Dec. 10.

Gordon Churchill, Winnipeg MP, issued a statement Tuesday night that a 15-member committee of MPs has started work to "draft" John Diefenbaker, 61-year-old Saskatchewan lawyer.

Mr. Diefenbaker, who seems certain to run for the leadership although he hasn't yet said so, commented that he was deeply grateful "for this show of confidence."

The place and time of a convention to choose a successor to Hon. George Drew and write a Conservative election platform was decided Tuesday at a day-long closed meeting of the executive of the party's national association.

Association president Leon Baker of Trois-Rivieres, Que., predicted that more than 1,400 will attend the convention.

As the executive met, behind-the-scenes manoeuvring reached a faster tempo in the leadership field, in which no one has yet declared himself.

There was a strong indication that George Hees, 46-year-old member for Toronto Broadview, may drop his leadership hopes and swing in support of Mr. Diefenbaker, the party's external affairs spokesman who failed in two previous leadership bids.

If he does, that may move Donald Fleming, party stalwart from Toronto Eglinton, into second spot in the leadership fight. Another possible contestant is David Fulton, member for Kamloops, B.C.

Those close to Mr. Hees said his hope, if he decides to support Mr. Diefenbaker, would be to become deputy party leader with a view to winning the leadership when the post next opens.

(Mr. Hees Tuesday started a barnstorming tour of Western Canada. His itinerary does not include a Victoria visit.)

Tuesday night's statement by Mr. Churchill said his committee does not include Mr. Fleming, Mr. Fulton or Mr. Hees.

The statement said a campaign to draft Mr. Diefenbaker began this week "and reliable reports indicate a very high percentage of Conservative MPs are prepared to support Mr. Diefenbaker."

PM Buys Car Custom Built For Consort

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent has bought a swanky car that was specially built for the Duke of Edinburgh.

The stately black sedan was custom made for the duke for his 1954 tour of Canada. The Austin Motor Company of England shipped it to Canada as a gesture to the duke, but it was not used during the tour.

The chauffeur-driven car which seats six passengers was offered to the prime minister for an undisclosed price by Austin Motors of Toronto. It had travelled about 2,000 miles when it was delivered to Mr. St. Laurent last Thursday.

Mr. St. Laurent, who also keeps a car at his family home in Quebec City, traded in his long, black limousine.

Landslide Victory for Liberals In Newfoundland; CCF Wiped Out

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—The Liberal government of Premier Smallwood, was swept back into office Tuesday with an increased majority for its third straight election victory since Newfoundland became a province seven years ago.

Liberals increased their strength in the legislature by winning all eight new seats created by a redistribution act in 1955 and taking one seat from the Progressive Conservatives.

The CCF, which had entered 10 candidates, did not win a seat and all lost their $100 deposits for failing to gain half the number of votes of the elected candidate.

The standings:

Liberals	32	23
Conservatives	4	5
Total	36	28

PREMIER NOT SURPRISED
Mr. Smallwood, who termed his victory a "landslide," said he was not surprised at the outcome. Before the election he had predicted that his party would win "more than 30 seats."

For the 56-year-old premier it was his third victory at the helm of the Liberals since Newfoundland became Canada's 10th province in 1949.

Malcolm Hollett, 62, leading the Progressive Conservatives in an election campaign for the first time, conceded victory to the Liberals less than two hours after polls closed.

In a statement he said: "This election has shown me people are beginning to think. I am sure of different results in the future."

Samuel Dwyer, 45, leader of the CCF candidates who contested the election, said "the CCF was a new party and didn't have the funds to fight the election." He predicted better luck in the future "when the people know more about us."

Mr. Dwyer was defeated in White Bay South by Liberal Education Minister F. W. Rowe. Mr. Dwyer was elected a Liberal in

OUTCRY IN MOSCOW

Ishkov Criticized Over Fish Policy

MOSCOW (AP)—A. A. Ishkov, head of the ministry of the fishing industry, was criticized Tuesday by the powerful Literary Gazette for his fish production policies. It hinted that he and his aides ought to be removed.

It was one of the strongest attacks ever published against a member of the Bulgarian government.

The Gazette accused Ishkov of filling market quotas by stripping fish preserves "at the expense of future generations."

BARREN SEA

The article, signed by V. Ovchkin, said the ministry policy of filling quotas threatened to leave the Azov Sea as barren as the desert.

Ishkov was appointed in April, 1954, to head the new ministry. His job at that time was outlined as increasing the catch and improving the quality of fish caught. The Gazette said he had been too busy catching fish.

Ishkov was a recent visitor to Canada and toured fisheries on both coasts, including Pacific Biological Station on Departure Bay, near Nanaimo. His visit was a follow-up to a trip to Russia by Canadian Fisheries Minister Sinclair.

A. A. ISHKOV recently toured Canada.

Company Cancels Lebanon Pipeline

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—The British-owned Iraq Petroleum Co. announced Tuesday that it is cancelling a proposed pipeline between Homs, Syria, and Tripoli, Lebanon, because of Lebanon's attitude toward the company. The pipeline now will be between Homs and Banias, Syria. The PIC criticized the Lebanese government's claims for increased royalties on oil using the pipeline.

PREMIER SMALLWOOD wins 32 of 36 seats

White Bay in 1951, but split with the party in 1954.

At dissolution standings were: Liberal 17, Progressive Conservative four, CCF one and six vacant. Five Liberals and a Progressive Conservative had resigned since the 1951 election.

Premier Smallwood retained his seat in Bonavista North over 25-year-old Paul Thoms of the CCF.

His son, William Smallwood defeated a Progressive Conservative and an Independent in Green Bay.

All of Mr. Smallwood's 14 cabinet ministers were elected, some for the first time. Fisheries Minister John Cheeseman, Welfare Minister B. J. Abbott, and Health Minister Dr. James McGrath were appointed earlier this year and held no seats.

The Liberal trend showed in early returns and continued to grow.

ASKED OPPOSITION, LOSES

Derrick Bowring, who challenged Premier Smallwood to run a candidate against him in St. John's North, was one of the Progressive Conservatives defeated.

Shortly after he announced the election date Sept. 10, Mr. Smallwood said he did not plan to contest St. John's North or Mr. Hollett's St. John's West seat, because of his "deathly fear" of eliminating the Opposition.

Mr. Hollett won by acclamation, but Mr. Bowring said he did not want to "enter the house of assembly by the back door, still less through the grace and favor of Smallwood."

The premier said he would "take Mr. Bowring's advice" and named George Nightingale, a garage owner and municipal councillor, to run in St. John's North.

Mr. Nightingale won by a 550-vote majority.

Newspaper Week

THIS IS NATIONAL NEWSPAPER WEEK—an occasion on which to discuss the freedom of the press, the public's right to information and the responsibility resting on newspapers to provide that information which is the nourishment of democracy.

This is also the week in which the Supreme Court of Canada opens its fall term, with an appeal from Quebec's Padlock Law the eleventh item on the docket.

It is, moreover, the first National Newspaper Week since the Canadian Parliament imposed new taxation on advertising in Canadian editions of foreign magazines, thereby creating an impediment to their production in this country.

It is a week in which to note gains and losses for the medium of the printed word, and to assess the usefulness, effectiveness and integrity of newspapers.

As long as Quebec's Padlock Law remains in force, freedom of the press is not beyond jeopardy. The same legislation which seeks to prevent the distribution of communist literature, could, under specific circumstances, be invoked to curb other written material considered communist only by the distorted minds of zealots or those serving special interests. The once-vocal U.S. Senator Joseph McCarthy illustrates the point.

Beyond that law, the situation in Quebec, where Mr. Duplessis has assumed the right to regulate newspaper prices—ostensibly to protect domestic users—takes on the potential dangers of a device Peron used to cripple La Prensa in Argentina.

As far as the new federal tax on advertising for Canadian editions of foreign magazines is concerned, it may be argued that the tax does not apply to foreign magazines brought into the country. Hence, the case may be made, it does not interfere with the flow of outside opinion into this nation. The tax does, nevertheless, place a restriction on the publication in Canada of editorial material which originates abroad.

To a very substantial degree it is an application of protectionism for certain Canadian magazines which will flourish in the long run not by the difficulties placed in the way of outside competitors who publish in this land, but by improving the standard of the domestic output.

These factors in themselves make National Newspaper Week of 1956 no occasion for complacent reiteration of platitudes in Canada.

Yet the subjects cited possibly indicate more clearly than anything else the appreciation by Canadian newspapers of the need for vigilance. With that appreciation goes a recognition by newspapers of the responsibility demanded of them by their readers.

This year, with the pipeline debate in Ottawa and with an exceptionally vigorous election campaign in British Columbia, newspapers have been subjected to close scrutiny by the public. In national, provincial and local fields, cries have been raised against a "hostile" press—"hostile" being the adjective to denote disagreement by the protesting voice with the policies certain newspapers have followed.

The fact that other voices outside the profession have been raised in defence of those members of the press which have been criticized indicates an essentially healthy condition in Canada.

The pros and cons are being aired. The different outlooks of the people who make up Canada are being given newspaper space. Editorial opinion—and every newspaper claims that as a right—is being challenged, attacked and defended.

The public's lively interest reflects its own tribute to the newspapers. It lends vitality to the press and with that vitality comes a sobering appreciation of the obligation resting on newspapers to continue the service expected of them.

Dark Doings on the Black Sea

RECENT MYSTERIOUS TALKS on the shore of the Black Sea have been given various interpretations. To the gathering of Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia, Soviet Party Chief Khrushchev and other Russian leaders has been added Ernoe Geroe, the Hungarian communist leader, and perhaps Romanian emissaries. It appears that some agreement on Balkan matters is being sought by the Russians—one in which Marshal Tito can play a major part.

Such a development must have implications for the Russian domestic situation. Tito, of course, was the early and outstanding anti-Stalinist. He broke away from the Moscow-dominated Cominform and established Yugoslavia as a communist but independent state. For this effort he naturally was ostracized by the Soviet and its remaining obedient satellites.

But the switch from Stalinism to the more recent era of smiles and handshakes must have brought about complications regarding policy for satellites. Should the dependent states be given greater freedom, to approximate the independence of Yugoslavia? What would be the wider effect of this action?

The recent Polish riots gave an indication that all is not peace and love in the satellite states. But it is believed that those in the Kremlin who would appease the wishes of the dominated peoples ran into opposition from the military powers, who want to see the buffer states firmly retained on Russia's western flank.

There are rumors that the Red Army may be withdrawn from Hungary and Romania, but it is not known how accurate these are. It may well be that the U.S.S.R. wishes to prepare its allies around the Black Sea as a springboard for extension of influence farther south.

Certainly the Middle East is now in a state of flux that must appear very inviting to the communists. The so-called Northern Tier—the alliance of Turkey, Iran and Pakistan, with British and United States backing—that was to form a wall against southward encroachment of the Soviet Union has been largely surmounted.

With current Russian influence in Egypt and unrest in other Arab states, communism appears to have gained the foothold it so long has wanted. In addition, Russia is emerging as a power to be considered in all Middle East settlements—the current Suez situation being a case in point.

Matters have been quiet so long in the Far East that it is about time for another phase of Soviet policy to be launched. The constant probing for weak spots which now characterizes the cold war being carried on by Russia calls for further exploitation of conditions in the Mediterranean area. No doubt we now see the preliminary plans being made.

'Play Ball'

THE SPOTLIGHT TURNS AGAIN from the serious world to what the man in Brooklyn calls the "World Serious" and the frowns of the well-informed are caused by pitching arms in Ebbsfield Field instead of Soviet arms in Egypt.

This is a traditional interlude of early autumn. For a few days little looms more important than the precision of eighteen men alternately occupying parks in or near New York. For a time Suez steps down from the headlines. Even those exceedingly busy men Mr. Eisenhower and Mr. Stephenson, share pre-eminence with gentlemen called Ford and Maglie.

History may be moving over its inexorable global course, but pay it no attention. Right now one thing only is significant—the figures that appear under the headings of runs, hits and errors.

If you're riding to work on the bus, don't bother discussing Nasser. The man next to you will want to know who he ever played for.

The Cat Keeps Coming Back

PAPER TIGER BY THE TAIL By B. A. TOBIN

Life is Just a Paper Chase

I NOTICED an item the other day saying that a big move is on to develop the use of paper for a lot of jobs where cloth is now used. It spoke of paper bathing suits, paper evening gowns, paper shirts for men (throw them away when they're dirty) and paper sheets and table cloths. Some of these things are already being made in an experimental way. Atomic workers now wear paper coveralls which are burned when they become contaminated. So it may not be long before we're all wrapped up in paper like a pound of sausages. Lots of office people are all wrapped up in paper work now, so it won't be much of a change for them. But it's going to take some getting used to by the rest of us.

It won't be very safe to strike a match on the seat of paper trousers, even if they are fireproofed. A paper dress in the five o'clock rush for the bus might present new problems. The paper shirt would be handy for scribbling notes in the cuff, but it would need careful handling.

In fact, I think only the stiff, cardboard type of people would do well in paper clothing. When the term print dress comes to mean newspaper, a new era will have dawned.

Paper has already played a great part in the life of man. We have government white papers, and scientific papers read at meetings, and examination papers and wall papers. Down in the Suez just now they're worried about pilots' papers, and if you get fired you get your walking papers. We even have paper profits.

Outside Influence

But of all the kinds of papers, perhaps newspapers have had the most effect on us. No paper wrapping we put on outside will ever compare in results with the type of paper that gives us ideas inside.

The ancients made some pretty desperate efforts to produce something that would carry their ideas. They carved rock slabs, wrote on cave walls, and scratched clay tablets. The Egyptians took a big step forward when they made papyrus, a sort of mat formed of reeds pulped together that would take writing. The Chinese went this one better, with their early paper products. And for a while parchment was popular.

It was a long time before rag papers came along, and still longer before we developed cheaper paper from wood pulp. That really started the wheels spinning. With type-setting machines and printing presses we moved right into the age of mass communication and I don't suppose we'll ever step out of it.

More people read more words today than ever before. How many of the words are remembered is another question. And so is how many of them are worth remembering.

When you think of the forests that are disappearing, so we can have more to read, you begin to wonder whether we aren't paying a fairly high price for the privilege.

Of course, some of the wood goes into paper to print articles about how we should slow down destruction of the forests, so perhaps it evens things up a bit.

But the whole process seems a bit like the proposition of damming the rivers and killing off the salmon runs, then using the power we get to make artificial food to take the place of the lost fish.

That's progress, even if the trees and the fish don't agree.

Substitute Substitute

If all these new uses for paper become popular there's going to be an even greater demand for wood pulp. Perhaps it isn't time yet, but the day may come when we'll have to start figuring out a substitute for paper.

Cotton and wool may come into fashion as materials for clothing. Some fellow may have the brainwave to make sheets and table cloths from linen. It will start off a whole new trend, and new industries will spring up everywhere.

In that case, progress will mean going backwards, although nobody may think of it at the time. And it's a fact that in times to come new-fangled things may turn out to be just old-fashioned things revived. It's a thought that somehow seems to give a little more hope for the future.

Answers Needed

New York Times

Every automobile on the highway is also a man—or woman—on the highway. What illnesses, what mental quirks, what disabilities make him unsafe? At what age is he too old? When is vision too bad, day and night?

How can bad driver attitudes be corrected? What makes an accident "repeater," and when do you take him off the road for good? To what extent is the drinking driver a source of our death and injury statistics?

These are some of the questions on which we need better answers. They bear directly on enforcement problems. They point to something better than mere mail-order renewal of driving licenses, year after year.

It is a serious thing to deprive a man of a driving license; it may deprive him of his livelihood or badly hamper his freedom of action. But it is also a serious thing to have unfit drivers on the road.

As Our Readers See It

The Right to Work

A banker informs us that manpower shortage contributes to inflation, that part of the answer is to increase the number of employed and urges increased immigration for this purpose.

Why complain of manpower shortage while many elderly citizens still capable are denied the right to work?

This disgusting scheme of thrusting aside elderly people as of no account, while at the same time deluging infancy and youth with public flattery; this puny soulless business efficiency attempting to wrestle with the inexorable law of cause and effect, is sure to meet its punishment. "God is not mocked."

Supports Firemen

As one who has always taken a keen interest in all civic, provincial and federal affairs for the main people, the worker, may I say regarding a report in Friday's Times, "Firemen Request Pension Tax on Insurance Firms," I consider the firemen are quite correct in requesting this move.

But the demand should be 3 per cent, not 2 per cent.

It should not come out of the pockets of people who take out fire insurance. The rates in some cases are far too high now. City council members had better see this goes through as the firemen wish.

Problem of the Parker

I should like to relate two experiences I have met with in Victoria.

About 16 years ago I parked my car by Stuart's Meat Market, bought some provisions, drove to Oak Bay where I did some business with a lady. Later I returned to a parking position a few feet from where I had parked previously. I sauntered up to the corner of Yates and Douglas and returned to find that I had a summons for parking. I appeared in court but the police were not able to proceed and the case was remanded for the next day.

Opinions of individuals questioned re military training for teenagers are, to say the least, varied.

As I understand it the need for recruits is for civil defence in the event of attack.

Assuming that Victoria was the point an enemy had selected for destruction, could the military, unable to ward off an attack, prevent the distress of the civilians still living? The military with their equipment for transportation could reach perhaps places of comparative safety, carrying with them rations, etc., to tide them over.

If these facts were made public in the advertising for teenage recruits, letting them know that the military life was the safest in the event of attack would the response not satisfy the requirements of civil defence officials?

There is only one sane answer to above. Outlaw war. Use nuclear energy for peaceful purposes. Let international confidence and welcome prevent suspicion and fear, i.e., practice international co-operation.

Divided About Canada

LONDON—I have just said goodbye to a Canadian couple returning to Canada after a visit of a couple of weeks to this country. He had been to England before, during the war and on another occasion. It was the first time she had ever been here.

She liked what she saw of England. She thought London's big stores and little specialty shops were wonderful (usual reaction of a woman visitor). She felt English trains knocked spots off Canadian trains, so much faster and more comfortable (a most unusual reaction).

She thought London's buildings were colorful (a new one on me) and liked the way painters always seemed to be sprucing up the woodwork. She liked the roadside barrows with fruit and flowers for sale and she liked the pubs and the "bitter" beer they serve (a type of beer most women don't cotton to).

Reyburn

She left liking England, no doubt of that. But her husband more than merely likes England. I saw that look in his eye—that acquired love for England and the yen to return to your Canada or your Australia or wherever it happens to be and always there's that longing to throw up everything and come to England. I know, because I went through it.

In front of his wife he never pointedly brought up the subject of what it would be like if he made the move over here. But there was question after question about rents here and how much it takes to run a house and rates of income tax and all sorts of other queries that could have been merely a lively interest in things over here but were in truth a quiet reckoning up in his mind how he would make out in this country.

At length I brought it out into the open and, as I surmised, he yearns to come and live in England and she is dead against it.

They are not unique, this couple. I know several in the same situation. He has an excellent job in Canada, makes very good money. They have a big house of which she is very proud and two cars. They are "something" in their local community—a matter of great importance to her but of no great concern to him.

In the type of work he does his scope and opportunity would be far greater in this country, though initially it would be a great comedown financially, and he loves the English way of life—those are his reasons for wanting to make the move.

She has a better house than any of her neighbors and most of her friends, her own car, a mink, she is looked up to as the wife of a man very successful locally... that's her type of reason for being against taking such a step.

But which is more important—the man to be happy in his work and within himself and the wife to share reflected happiness, or the wife to be happy in having "position" and all the trimmings while he is a beaten man, not doing what he wants to do?

I know what my answer is—I wonder what yours is?

Osteoporosis

Dr. Alvarez is Emeritus Consultant in Medicine, Mayo Clinic and Emeritus Professor of Medicine Mayo Foundation.

Osteo means a bone and porosis comes from the root of the word we use when we mean porous, or full of small holes. There are several diseases in which one or more bones or part of a bone will become thinned and porous and lacking in calcium or lime.

Many older persons, especially when they reach the age of 75 or 80, will lose much of the lime out of their spinal column and as a result, they may suddenly become round-shouldered; their head may bend forward so that they keep looking down at the ground, and they may lose several inches in height. Sometimes, there is pain in the abdomen because of the collapse of some of the bones making up the spinal column; nerves lying between them are pinched.

Dr. Alvarez

Unfortunately, we physicians do not know as much as we would like to know about this disease. Because it comes with age, men have assumed that it is due to a loss of the sexual hormones, but in my experience the giving of these hormones does not do much good. But it should be tried. Also, the giving of large amounts of lime by mouth doesn't seem to do any good. The bones are not able to make use of it.

Sometimes, when the patient sees quickly that his spine is caving in, he should go to an orthopedist for a strong back brace. This may prevent his spine from bending over.

DODGING ASTHMA

Many persons who suffer from asthma or hay fever ask me if they should go to the southwest to live, and I cannot answer them. Often a good specialist in allergy, who knows which plants are causing an individual's distress, could give him some idea of what might happen. He might say, "Yes, since your troubles are due to ragweed, if you will go somewhere where there is no ragweed, you should be well." I remember, however, a woman with a bad hay fever due to ragweed who moved to a western desert where she got much worse—because she was tremendously sensitive to sage brush! Unfortunately, she had not known about that before she made the move.

B.C. Feels Slighted Says BCE President

VANCOUVER (CP)—The president of the B.C. Electric Co. said Tuesday night that the people of British Columbia feel slighted in their relations with Eastern Canadians.

"The British Columbian is passionately fond of his province," A. E. (Dal) Grauer of Vancouver said.

"His attitude to the rest of Canada is the same as that of the Briton toward the Continent."

"The British Columbian believes that the Eastern Canadian does not visit B.C. enough, nor appreciate B.C. feelings enough. You might say that Vancouver is 3,000 miles from Ottawa, but Ottawa is 30,000 from Vancouver. We gather that our present premier (W. A. C. Bennett) shares this feeling."

Mr. Grauer was speaking to some 400 Jews and special guests following receipt of the 1956 B'nai B'rith goodwill trophy for his "contribution to the welfare of our province in the fields of industry and business and in the promotion of goodwill and better understanding among Canada's citizenry."

British Sculptor's Work Rouses Intense Emotions

By J. C. GRAHAM
Canadian Press Correspondent

AUCKLAND, N.Z. (CP)—An exhibition of works by the British sculptor Henry Moore recently drew record attendances when shown in some Canadian cities. It has hit New Zealand with explosive violence.

It aroused intense emotions. Some viewers wanted to fight the sculptor or anyone sticking up for him. Others relieved their feelings by "outing insults." At the other extreme, many expressed lyrical praise of the display.

The rumpus started when the mayor of Auckland, J. H. Luxford, dropped in at the city art gallery.

6 Firms Invited To Bid on Building

Selected contractors have been asked to tender by October 10 for erection of the modern Canada Trust Company and Huron and Erie Mortgage Corporation building at Broad and View Streets. Early estimates set cost in the neighborhood of $350,000. Invited to bid for the contract are J. A. Pollard Construction, Luney Brothers and Hamilton, Farmer Construction, Commonwealth Construction, George Wheaton Ltd. and Parfitt Construction Co. Ltd. Demolition of the old building on the site was carried out by Farmer Construction Ltd.

for a look at the exhibition. Within minutes he was angrily asking an attendant if the tax payers had to foot the bill. (The exhibit was arranged and distributed through a British council.)

Then he issued a widely quoted statement declaring he had never seen the gallery "desecrated by such a nauseating sight," and saying he found the display repulsive.

But that was just a beginning. R. Q. Gross, Auckland professional sculptor, said if this was art, then all works from the time of Cheops until the coming of Moore should be destroyed as dangerous and useless.

A man in a towering rage belatedly: "That man ought to be shot," as he stamped out of the gallery from an enraged survey of Moore's work.

Most of the city's intellectuals strongly supported the display and bitterly condemned the mayor for his criticism.

The uproar has drawn crowds far exceeding the record for any art show in the country's history. In the first four days 11,000 saw the exhibition, compared with 12,000 in three weeks in Toronto.

White-Footed Mice, Totem Study In Charlottes Set By Scientists

Scientists from the B.C. Provincial Museum will head for the Queen Charlotte Islands Oct. 15 on an expedition to study totem poles and white-footed mice.

The group will travel in the coastal escort HMCS Brockville, and will include Wilson Duff, provincial anthropologist; Michael Kew, his assistant, and Charles Guiget, curator of birds and mammals.

The expedition will visit Anthony Island, a small island to the west of the group. On it are many ancient Indian totems, which will be sketched and photographed by the anthropologists.

Mr. Guiget is interested in the small mammals of the island, and hopes to capture a number of white-footed mice. Their small size makes them suitable for easy study, and they are of interest in the evolutionary scale.

The Brockville will sail from Esquimalt on the morning of Oct. 15, and return Oct. 24.

40% Cut Claimed
In Home-Building

Difficulty in obtaining housing construction loans in Victoria has cut home-building as much as 40 per cent for some contractors.

Builders feel they will have to reduce their operations, with the result many local carpenters will move to heavy industrial projects, mostly up-Island.

Other contractors say the situation is made more serious by a reduced demand for homes, compared to last year.

A telephone poll of local home builders revealed today mortgage loans are hard to get. Interest rates asked, where NHA loans are not available, may be 7 per cent.

Real estate firms, according to one source, have expended their 1956 loan budgets.

The decline in house building was verified by building permit totals released by Victoria City Hall.

Building Values Down $1 Million

Value of dwellings constructed in Victoria so far this year is $1,960,082 as compared with $2,991,541 in the same period of 1955—about a 33 per cent drop.

Commercial-industrial building failed to make this year a better year than last. At the end of September this year the value of all new construction was $6,523,709, compared to $7,200,961.

Comparing month to month, however, September, 1956, showed an increase in all classes of construction over September, 1955. There were 805 permits of a value of $810,816 issued last month. In September last year there were 721 permits worth $642,314, the increase in

Only 4 New Homes in Esquimalt

At Esquimalt building records show there were only four homes started there in September this year compared with six in September, 1955.

Total new construction in September, 1956, was $71,925 as compared to $74,400 in the same month last year. However, the boom in building in the early part of the year pushed the total so far this year to $1,540,790 compared with $846,555 last year to the same date.

P. M. Townsend of Paine & Townsend Ltd. said regarding loan scarcity:

"As far as housing is concerned it's having a disastrous effect. Contractors won't start building on speculation. They will likely have to cut operations. There may be layoffs unless industry construction takes up the lag. It might mean carpenters will have to move to outside points.

"Fewer houses are being built. Ours are down 40 per cent from last year. This could also be a result of a lessening in demand for homes of course."

Contractor Victor L. Leigh said because his firm does a great deal of cash work, his con-

Flood Damages
Must Be Paid
Court Rules

OTTAWA (CP)—The rural Saskatchewan municipality of Monet Tuesday lost its appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada against Saskatchewan court decisions awarding damages to four Glamis Sask.; residents for flooding they claimed was caused by a municipal road.

The cases involved Gordon Campbell, Marian McCallum, James Francis Williams and Reginald Johnston, all of the postal district of Glamis. They sued the municipality for damages in 1951-52 floods they said were caused by a Monet municipal road interfering with water runoff.

The Saskatchewan Supreme Court, in a judgment later upheld by the Saskatchewan Appeal Court, ordered the municipality to pay Campbell $7,000, McCallum $1,600 and Williams and Johnston $4,500 each.

Stitch in Time

LENOIR, N.C. (AP)—Little Kate Waters was literally in stitches when she attended Sunday school here last week-end.

The nine-year-old, before an appendectomy last Wednesday, extracted promises from her doctor and her parents that she'd be out in time for Sunday school. An ambulance took her. Kate was able to maintain her perfect attendance record.

PUBLIC CAN SEE MARS ON OBSERVATORY 'SCOPE

Dr. R. M. Petrie, director of the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, said Tuesday the public is invited every Saturday of this month to view the planet Mars through the 72-inch telescope on Little Saanich Mountain.

The observation period will be from 8 to 10 p.m. Dr. Petrie said successful observation of the red planet which came to within 35,200,000 miles of the earth on Sept. 7, the closest since 1939, will depend on weather and atmospheric conditions.

Pinball Game Doom
Claimed in Montreal

MONTREAL (CP)—Pacific (Pax) Plante, acting director of Montreal police, says a Supreme Court of Canada decision Tuesday sounded the death knell of the city's multi-million dollar pinball machine industry.

A court ruling upheld, in effect, the contention of the city of Montreal that pinball machines are gaming machines even when there is no payoff.

The case stemmed from a Montreal by-law making it illegal to play the machines as well as to keep them.

The issue gained prominence in Montreal after Pierre Desmarais reported he was approached "with a $2,000,000 bribe offer to lay off the pinballs." Mr. Desmarais said the "bribers" couldn't be prosecuted because the payoff offers were not by notarial notes or by registered mail.

Man Buried Alive
Of Grain Mountain

VANCOUVER (CP)—Franklin Hatfield, 54-year-old longshoreman, escaped unharmed Tuesday when he was buried alive for several minutes in the grain-filled hold of a freighter.

Mr. Hatfield was covered by cascading grain as it filled a bin in the hold. Another workman was able to jump clear and yelled to a hatch tender who turned off the flow. Mr. Hatfield clawed his way to the surface of the grain before rescuers got to him.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia has accepted an invitation to send two or three observers to "view at first hand" the American political campaign and the Nov. 6 elections.

State department officials said today the Soviet foreign office agreed Monday to the offer extended four days earlier by the state department as part of its cultural exchange program.

The Soviet government in accepting, officials said, also it would be glad to welcome two or three Americans to observe the elections of the Supreme Soviet. The next such Soviet election is scheduled for 1958 to pick members of this body, which is the Communist equivalent of a parliament.

Political Education Program
Drafted By Canadian Unionists

TORONTO (CP)—The political education committee of the Canadian Labor Congress Tuesday drafted plans for a broad program of political education among union members.

A conference, attended by 25 delegates representing unions in six provinces, endorsed a general outline of an approach to political education in unions and discussed details of such a program.

Donovan Swales of Winnipeg presided at the meeting and two of the three CLC executive officers, executive vice-president Gordon Cushing and secretary-treasurer Donald MacDonald, both of Ottawa, participated.

The committee decided the proposed political education program should cover these points, among others: Understanding of the CLC program and policies and how they can be implemented; study of current political issues in relation to CLC policy; understanding of the functions of government and the enactment of legislation; understanding of how the Canadian economy functions and of current economic problems.

Over-All Armed Forces Chief Canada's Need Says Pearkes

BOUND FOR SUEZ—Capt. Walter Equils of New Kensington, Pa., was the first American pilot to obtain a state department visa for Egypt since nationalization of the international waterway. Equils is one of several Americans to volunteer for pilot service on the canal. Egypt has been advertising all over the world for pilots to replace those of the old Suez Canal Co.

CHIANG'S JETS IN DOGFIGHT WITH MIGS

TAIPEI (AP)—The Chinese Nationalists reported today that four of their F-84 Thunderjets battled furiously Monday with four Chinese Communist MIG-17s off the south China coast.

The Nationalists claimed two of the Red jets were damaged, but that the Nationalist planes returned unscathed. The Reds said earlier that a Nationalist jet had been shot down.

Dutch Widow 107 Wants Quiet Day

THE HAGUE (Reuters)—Holland's oldest inhabitant, the widow Christina Karnebek of Eibergen, celebrated her 107th birthday today. She is still in good health, but at her request only near relatives came to visit her. Last year she greeted 2,000 well-wishers.

OTTAWA (CP)—Maj. Gen. G. R. Pearkes, VC, called Tuesday for a thorough review of the top administration in the defence department.

The Progressive Conservative spokesman on military affairs said in an interview that the present chiefs of staff system should be overhauled.

Under the present system, the chief of each of the three armed services is individually responsible to the civilian defence minister. There is a chairman of the joint chiefs of staff committee but he has no defined responsibility.

Gen. Pearkes, a regular soldier in both world wars, suggested that there be an over-all chief of the services who would be the minister's chief adviser or that the three chiefs be responsible for coordinating policy to present to the minister.

SOMETHING WRONG

The Conservative member for Esquimalt - Saanich, here for meeting of the party's national executive, said recent statements by Lt. Gen. Guy Simonds, former army chief of staff, and Maj. Gen. W. H. S. Macklin, retired army adjutant-general, indicate there is something wrong in administration of the defence department.

The whole question should be reviewed by a parliamentary committee or royal commission.

Gen. Pearkes also said the defence department would help solve its manpower problem by eliminating the duplication which, he contended, exists in the services.

Strength of the armed forces is less than 116,000, its lowest in two years.

"The tail we had during the Second World War was too big and this has carried over into peacetime," the general said.

(In service parlance, the "tail" refers to headquarters and administrative staff as against front-line, combat troops.)

General Pearkes said many duplicated jobs can be eliminated in such branches as supply, service police and the chaplain, intelligence and medical services. Under the present system, the navy, army and air force each has its own services in these fields and others.

UNITY MUST COME

He reasserted his view that the armed forces must eventually be unified into one service.

He also said the army will continue to play a strong role but that it must be made more mobile. A situation might arise, for instance, where the United Nations formed an international force to preserve peace in some trouble spot. The more quickly Canadian troops could be moved to that area, the better the chances of preserving peace.

JEWISH DRAMA STUNS GERMANS

BERLIN — Deeply moved theatre audiences in seven German cities Monday night received in stunned silence the first German performances of the play, The Diary of Anne Frank. The play, about the plight of a Jewish family in Nazi-occupied Holland before being taken to concentration camps, was performed in West Berlin, Dusseldorf, Hamburg, Karlsruhe, Constance, Aachen and Dresden (East Germany).

DR. A. H. O'NEIL

Bible Society Secretary Named Bishop

FREDERICTON (CP)—Rev. Dr. A. H. O'Neil, 43, of Toronto, general secretary of the British and Foreign Bible Society in Canada, Tuesday was elected bishop of the Anglican diocese of Fredericton.

The new leader of New Brunswick's 60,000 Anglicans succeeds Bishop W. H. Moorhead, 75, who retired August 31.

Dr. O'Neil was elected on the sixth ballot at a special synod meeting here. Reached by telephone at Vegreville, Alta., Dr. O'Neil accepted the appointment. No date has been set for the consecration ceremony. It is not expected to be held for a month or more as Dr. O'Neil's present tour of western Canada will last until the end of October.

ROYAL BANK DEFRAUDED BY BAD CHEQUES

Convict Author Held on Writing Charge

MONTREAL (CP)—An Ottawa man who wrote a published novel during a recently-completed five-year prison term was back in court Tuesday charged with passing two worthless cheques.

Kenneth Lemieux, 38, was not asked to enter a plea and preliminary hearing was set for Oct. 10.

His attorney, Myer Gross, said it is "possible" Lemieux will plead guilty to the charges later but he wants an opportunity to make restitution to the Royal Bank.

Lemieux was released from the nearby St. Vincent-de-Paul penitentiary recently after completing a five-year term for passing worthless cheques. During his term he wrote the novel Hickory House, an account of politicians and gamblers in a large city, under the name of Kenneth Orvis.

Mr. Gross said the novel apparently has promise. He would be in a position to clear up the business of the cheques.

Suez, Algeria Policies Under Fire

By HAROLD KING

PARIS, France (Reuters)—Andre le Troquer, 71-year-old one-armed socialist, received Communist support to be re-elected speaker of the French National Assembly when it met Tuesday after a two-month recess.

The Communists backed le Troquer on the decisive second ballot, but not before they fired opening attacks at the Suez and Algerian policies of the government of Socialist Premier Guy Mollet.

The backing of Troquer followed a weekend appeal by Communist leader Maurice Thorez for "united action" by French Communists and Socialists.

It was Communist backing which gained le Troquer election in a third ballot when the new assembly first met last January, before the Mollet government took office.

ATTACKS SUEZ POLICY

Tuesday le Troquer received 301 votes—more than the required absolute majority—against 211 cast for former speaker Pierre Schneider, a Popular Republican (Catholic).

The big debates of the new session—on Suez, Algeria, and economic problems—are not expected to begin until after the Radical party congress in Lyon Oct. 11-14. Opening the session Tuesday, forces, planned to reach a strength of 195,000 to 215,000 in 1956-57. The party said the forces should be reduced to the level of "policy of peace in Algeria" and their "rudimentary" forerunner, said immediate negotiations were possible. He also attacked the government's Suez policy.

ACROSS THE PROVINCE

$90,000 Fire Razes Chilliwack Building

(FROM CP DISPATCHES)

CHILLIWACK — A fire believed to have started in the furnace destroyed a building supply store early today.

Firemen from the municipal and city brigades battled the blaze for 3½ hours. At times flames were visible at Abbotsford, 20 miles away.

Owner Peter Dueck said it was too early to give an accurate estimate of the loss. He said $65,000 worth of stock, along with three new trucks, a semi-trailer and loader valued at more than $25,000, were lost in the fire, one of the worst in recent Chilliwack history.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL

VANCOUVER — David Auld, 24, was committed for trial on a charge of possession of drugs when he appeared in police court Tuesday.

Bail was set at $1,000. Police testified they found a capsule containing traces of white powder when they stopped his car Aug. 26.

FORMER GRAIN HEAD DIES

WEST VANCOUVER — Funeral services were held today for Kenneth Carleton Allen, director of several Vancouver companies, who died Monday at the age of 72.

Mr. Allen was managing director of Alberta Pacific Grain Co. for 15 years and continued as a director after his retirement in 1951. He was also a director of Vancouver Breweries Ltd. and Union Steamships Ltd.

MURDER CHARGES

ENDERBY — Two Shuswap Indians were charged Tuesday with the murder of another Indian during the weekend on the nearby Enderby Indian reserve.

Thomas Dennis and Isaac Charlie, both in their 20s, were remanded without plea by Magistrate P. G. Farmer until Oct. 10. They were held in RCMP custody.

Louis Maxine, 26-year-old Enderby Reserve Indian, was found dead Sunday morning on the reserve. RCMP at Kam-loops said he had been beaten about the head, probably with a hammer.

JURY GIVEN WARNING

KAMLOOPS — A murder trial jury received a stern warning from Mr. Justice J. O. Wilson in Assize Court here Tuesday.

He said he will deal severely with any "flagrant breach of the laws governing the conduct of juries."

Two weeks ago he sentenced Kamloops hockey player Don Slater to five days' imprisonment for leaving the room where jury members had been billeted during the trial of two Merritt youths charged with murder. He also called for a new jury.

Mr. Justice Wilson is presiding over the trial of Gordon Cisco, 17, and Harold William Eusta, 20, both charged with the April 23 slaying of Johnny Sampson.

ELDERLY MAN BEATEN

MERRITT — RCMP here are searching for three men who assaulted an elderly Chinese outside the town Tuesday.

Vegetable grower Eng Gow, 75, was beaten by three strangers when he refused to cash a cheque in payment for vegetables.

THUGS STEAL WATCH

VANCOUVER — Thugs wielding a knife robbed a man of his watch in a lane here Tuesday before fleeing.

Charles Hovey told police the men forced him into an alley at knife-point. The assault was witnessed by two passing pedestrians who ran to Hovey's assistance.

MOTORIST CHARGED

VANCOUVER — A 33-year-old salesman who allegedly failed to remain at the scene of an accident surrendered to city police Tuesday.

An elderly woman was injured at a city intersection Monday night. Police have charged Richard Owen Griffiths with failing to remain at the scene of an accident and failing to yield the right of way to a pedestrian.

The injured woman, Mrs. Olive Walsh, 58, was carried into St. Paul's Hospital by the driver of the car that struck her, and his companion.

CABARETS UNDER FIRE

VANCOUVER — A Vancouver alderman says strict enforcement of a 3 a.m. closing for cabarets here would put an end to the era of "drawn blinds, buzzers on doors and spies."

Ald. Bill Orr was commenting on an application to city council by Chinatown cabaret operators for a one-hour extension of dancing to 3 a.m.

Puss 'n Boots now contains extra Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> (thiamin)

Now—see what extra Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> does for your cat—

Puss 'n Boots Cat Food, made from fresh-caught whole fish (not from scraps or by-products), contains nature's own ideal balance of life-giving nutrients. The chart shows how the proteins, the vitamins, the minerals and other vital elements are retained in nature's balance. And for all-round nutrition, seven scientifically selected cereals are added.

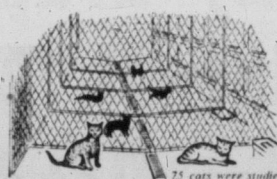

If you have been feeding Puss 'n Boots, you know how your cat thrives on it. Now, with extra Vitamin B<sub>1</sub>, you'll see an additional beneficial effect, especially if your cat is one of those requiring vitamin supplementation.

Pick up a week's supply of new Puss 'n Boots, with extra Vitamin B<sub>1</sub>, and see what it does for your cat! You'll enjoy an altogether more lovable pet... more playful, more beautiful. Food stores and pet shops everywhere have Puss 'n Boots, in two handy sizes.

A great scientific advance in pet nutrition... A serious problem solved for your cat.

You know from health lessons learned in your school days how important Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> is to your own well-being. But did you know that it's just as important for your cat to have an adequate daily supply of this essential "nerve vitamin"?

Because it is so important, Puss 'n Boots Cat Food now contains an extra supply of Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> in every can... purposely added in scientifically measured quantities, as the result of Puss 'n Boots' continuing study of cat nutrition.

What we Learned about Your Cat

More than five years ago we established a colony of 75 cats in model quarters. We fed them fresh food—canned food—every kind of food you are ever likely to feed your cat. Our veterinarian and nutritional specialists patiently observed the cats and their kittens, day after day, year after year, and kept detailed records of their diets and their physical condition.

From this study one crystal-clear conclusion emerged: A most important problem in feeding your cat is to make sure that it gets the adequate daily supply of Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> which it needs.

Does your Cat get Enough Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> Now?

Some cats need a larger supply of Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> than others. Such cats (like many humans) need supplementary B<sub>1</sub>. Unless they receive it they will lose appetite, weight and energy. They will be irritable instead of happily playful, dull looking instead of sleekly beautiful. So Puss 'n Boots, already rich in vitamins and minerals, now contains added Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> for two reasons:

1. To provide the supplementary Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> that some cats need.
2. To provide "Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> insurance" as a margin of safety for all cats.

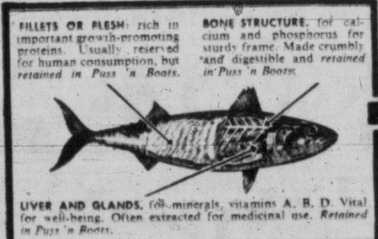

A Technical Triumph

It wasn't easy to add Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> to Puss 'n Boots and keep it stable. Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> is sensitive to heat. It may be lost in cooking. And Puss 'n Boots is cooked in the can, to make sure it reaches you absolutely pure, ready-to-eat cat food. But after much technical research and many experiments, we solved the problem. The vitamin is kept stable throughout the cooking.

Today, when you open a can of Puss 'n Boots you can be sure the added Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> is there, with all the health-giving benefits that mean so much to your cat's welfare.

PUSS 'n BOOTS

MADE FROM FRESH WHOLE FISH!

FILLET OR FLESH: rich in important growth-promoting proteins. Usually reserved for human consumption, but retained in Puss 'n Boots.

BONE STRUCTURE: full of calcium and phosphorus for sturdy frame. Made crumbly and digestible and retained in Puss 'n Boots.

LIVER AND GLANDS: full of minerals, vitamins A, B, D. Vital for well-being. Often extracted for medicinal use. Retained in Puss 'n Boots.

Every can of Puss 'n Boots contains an added amount of the "nerve vitamin,"

VITAMIN B<sub>1</sub> (Thiamin)

CARELESS FLYING LAID TO ACTOR

VAN NUYS, Calif. (AP)—Actor Steve Cochran faces a court arraignment Friday on a charge of careless flying.

The complaint was filed after two Los Angeles police helicopter patrol officers said they saw the actor dive his light plane to about 100 feet over his Beverly Hills home.

CLUB OFFICIALS IN SHUTTLE HUDDLE

Tennis racquets are being put in their presses and being tucked away at Victoria Lawn Tennis and Badminton Club, and the more delicate badminton racquets are being taken out of the closet for the winter season. Discussing plans for a busy and entertaining

Vernon No Patsies Cougars Know Well

IT'S MY VIEW
BY Bill Walker

The seasons change, one fusing into the other in a kaleidoscope of color—and the imprint on the wonderful world of sport blends a pattern all its own.

While the New York Yankees today battle the Brooklyn Dodgers for the championship of all baseball, coach Colin Kilburn and his Victoria Cougars shake out the kinks of summer idleness as they prep for a six-month tour of western ice lanes.

And as they now sit idly by in the evenings, the Nanaimo Timbermen must be revelling in the wine of victory that so rightfully is theirs. Champion of the boxa world, they are, the title coming to the Island for the second straight year.

This islet of ours then must rank as the new home of lacrosse and the advice is that Victoria Shamrocks intend to keep it that way next year.

The Bombers Spell 'Class'

But today it has to be the Yankees in the "world series." From an old Yankee fan in this corner, I'll get you a like amount that the Bombers will prevail over the Bums. At least until the fives run out. (Oop! It just did.)

You know, there's something about the Yankees that spells class.

Perhaps it's the vast expanse of Yankee Stadium, the monument to the Yankee greats in centre field, the empty lockers of Ruth and Gehrig in the dressing room, or their neat pin-striped grey suits.

They have the walk of champions, the manner of the proud and haughty name that is theirs; and more often than not they live up to that name.

The Final 'March Past'

But the Dodgers are a proud lot, too. It wasn't many days ago that the wire copy flooded the newsroom that the "old men" of Brooklyn were really "old." But now with the impetus of a glittering stretch run to the championship in the most exciting National League race in years behind them, for most of the Dodgers it's the final march past in baseball's "run-to-the-roses."

Don't ever count 'em out, the Bums from the Gowanus. The Milwaukee beer was only half as famous as were the Braves just a week ago. Now even the suds have lost their tang. The Dodgers made it so.

McDougald—One of the Best

You may have noticed the piece, but if you didn't there was fine tribute to Gil McDougald in a national publication this week.

Gil, who was weaned in Victoria's own Athletic Park (actually a better piece of ground than the Yankee Stadium infield), is credited with being one of the most valuable players on the Bombers. It is said of Gil that with a fine career as a second baseman and third baseman behind him, he stepped into the Yankee shortstop berth as if he owned it. And Brooklyn pitchers probably know it as well—McDougald is generally credited with being one of the best fast-ball hitters in baseball today.

Yep, we like the Yanks over the Bums, Maglie et al; just as we think that Cougar coach Colin Kilburn will do better than any whippersnapper for the Cougars this season.

But about the Cougars tomorrow—Whitey Ford of the Yankees has just let loose with his first pitch.

Drakes Fire French; Patrick Takes Over

Oak Bay Drakes, who strayed being a 21-13 loss to away last slightly off course in their last Friday night, Victoria Intermediate Football League game, will have a new pilot at the helm for their next outing.

Drakes fired head coach Fred French Tuesday and replaced him with two Vancouverites, Jack Patrick and Cec Taylor.

Patrick and Taylor met the Drakes' team for the first time at Tuesday night's workout and following the session, Bob Scarselli, line coach under French, announced that he would submit his resignation to the club.

Under French, Drakes had a record of two victories and one loss, the one blot on their record

FIGHT RESULTS

BOSTON, Tex.—Ray Harris, 125 lbs. defeated, outpointed Charlie Norik 195. Phil Washington, N.Y. 170. Philadelphia, outpointed Edgar Glover, 125, New York 165.

DAVIS CUP DATES

MADRAS, India (AP)—India will play the United States in the inter-zone final of the Davis Cup at Perth, Australia, on Dec. 7, 8 and 9. The All-India Lawn Tennis Association announced Tuesday.

Vernon Cougars won't have things their own way Thursday and Friday nights when they kick off their exhibition series against Vernon Canadians.

The locals will meet the present Allan Cup champions at Nanaimo Thursday night and then make their home debut against the national finalists at Memorial Arena Friday.

Vernon is a solid experienced club with a wealth of experience, but probably not in such depth as the local Western Hockey League club.

For example, in coach George Agar they have a former WHL scoring champion, a 300-goal man in pro hockey and an all-star WHL centre a few seasons ago.

Others with a broad background in the game are Willie Schmidt, former defenceman with New Westminster; Odie Lowe, once coach of the Winnipeg Maroons; Frank King and Orval Layell, both of whom were with Sudbury Wolves in the Allan Cup final series of 1954, and Walt Trentini, former Calgary Stampeder.

Kilburn is expected to give his newcomers as much work as possible; in that regard he has been particularly impressed with the work of Gordon Haworth and George Ramier.

BOBBY ON SHELF

Only serious casualty of the moment in the Cougar camp is defenceman Bill Dobbyn who is suffering a muscular ailment in the leg. However, it is expected that Dobbyn will be in the line-up Friday night.

Cougars open their regular WHL season against Vancouver Canucks on Monday afternoon at 2 p.m. at Memorial Arena.

Regals Sign Five Players

BRANDON (CP)—Brandon Regals of the Western Hockey League announced Tuesday the signing of five players for the 1955-56 season.

Frank Boucher, coach and general manager of the club, said the Regals had come to terms with Don Raleigh, assistant coach and forward, goaltender Lucien Dechene, defenceman Bill Bucyk and Murray Wilkie and forward Earl Johnson. Dechene, Bucyk and Wilkie were with the team last year.

Previously signed was Lyle Willey, rookie centreman, who played last season with the junior Flin Flon Bombers.

Dawes to Coach Kamloops Team

KAMLOOPS, B.C. (CP)—Kenneth MacKenzie, owner of the Kamloops entry in the Okanagan Senior Hockey League, announced Tuesday the signing of Bob Dawes as playing coach.

This will be Dawes' second taste of Okanagan hockey. The six-foot-one-inch defenceman was a standout for Kelowna Packers in 1954-55 season before moving to New Westminster Royals of the Western Hockey League.

MacKenzie also announced signing of Jim Shirley as goaltender. Saskatchewan-born and a product of the Wesleys, Shirley starred last season for Saint John, N.B., winner of the Atlantic Coast Senior Hockey League.

Maple Leafs Trim Barons

TIMMINS, Ont. (CP)—Toronto Maple Leafs overpowered Cleveland Barons 6-1 Tuesday night in an exhibition hockey game.

Rookie Bob Pulford scored two goals for the National Hockey League Leafs. George Armstrong, Ron Stewart, Hugh Bolton and Sid Smith scored singles.

Steve Kraftcheck fired the lone goal for Cleveland in the American Hockey League.

OLYMPIC PLEDGE TO BE MODIFIED

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP)—The top officials of the international Olympic movement, meeting here tonight, are expected to modify at least temporarily the rigorous and controversial anti-professional pledge introduced in the new Olympic rules.

The executive commission of the International Olympic Committee, convened by IOC president Avery Brundage, may decide to suspend the anti-professional phrase in the new pledge until after the Melbourne games, and so meet the widespread criticism of the pledge for the time being.

Canuck Beef Goes Up In Price

VANCOUVER (CP)—Surplus beef was priced at $5 a pound in the Vancouver Canuck training camp Tuesday.

Art Chapman, coach and manager of the Western Hockey League entry, set the price when he found that two defencemen, Carl Kaiser and Gordon Hudson, were overweight.

Chapman said he will weigh both defencemen each morning before practice. Should either fail to remove at least two pounds a day, they will be fined $5 for each extra pound they are carrying.

Hudson now weighs 224 pounds and Chapman wants him down to 210 before their league opener at Victoria Monday. Kaiser weighed in at 216. His playing weight is 205.

HOCKEY STAR DIES

TROIS-RIVIERES, Que. (CP)—Fred Bechard, 70, considered one of the greatest hockey players ever produced in the Trois-Rivieres area, died Tuesday. Bechard, a stocky defenceman, was noted for his rink-long pushes and stick-handling ability.

Hockey Refs to Use Signalling System

MONTREAL (CP)—The National Hockey League has announced 14 designated signals are to be used by referees and linesmen, the first complete official set in the league's history.

The signals were prepared on instruction of the NHL governors and will be of special benefit to television audiences, particularly with the television this season of 10 games over the CBS network in the United States.

Bill Chadwick, who retired as an NHL referee a year ago, employed a system of signals which he devised himself early in his refereeing career. An official set to cover four rule infractions was adopted by the league in the 1946-47 season.

ARM MOTIONS USED

The new signals are: slow whistle—Either arm in which whistle is held, extended above head. If play returns to neutral zone without stoppage, arm is drawn down without the puck crossing the line.

Trapping—Extending right leg forward, clear of the ice and striking it with right hand below the knee.

Hooking—A series of tapping motions with both arms as if putting something toward the stomach.

Slashing—A series of chopping motions with the arm of one hand across the chest of the other.

Cross-checking—A series of forward and backward motions with both fists clenched extending from the chest.

High-sticking—Holding both fists clenched one immediately above the other at the height of the forehead.

Charging—Reaching forward with the opposite hand, clenched fist around one's own neck.

Interference—Crossing arms stationary in front of chest.

Miscellaneous—Placing both hands on hips several times and pointing to penalized player.

INTERLOCKING SCHEDULE SET

Basketball's New Deal

Preliminary steps were taken over the weekend to give basketball in Victoria a new deal.

A large delegation from the Saanich and Suburban Basketball League and smaller representations from the Victoria and District Basketball Association, the Church League and the Victoria Referee's Association met Sunday night with delegates of the Canadian Basketball Association, the B.C. Basketball Association and the Vancouver and

Johnson Greatest Says Kearns

... But Dempsey Would Beat Louis

VANCOUVER (CP)—Jack Kearns, New York fight promoter and manager who has owned pieces of seven world champions, says Jack Johnson was the greatest of them all.

Here for the recent heavy-weight fight between Argentine's Edgardo Romero and Kearns' boy Joey Maxim, former light-heavyweight titleholder—Maxim won it—the 75-year-old promoter replied with finality when asked to name the champion of champions.

"Thought I'd say Dempsey, didn't you?" he chuckled. "No. But he would've licked Louis. I think Jack Johnson. He had everything. Boy, how I could have made money with him."

He might have been expected to choose Jack Dempsey if for no other reason than that he and Jack cut up $19,000,000 with Kearns at the helm and the Mauler laying out assorted boxers before great crowds.

"For the Tunney fights we got more dough than you could shovel with two shovels in a year," said Kearns.

Another of his champions was Mickey Walker, with whom Kearns said he grossed nearly $6,000,000. "We spent all Mickey married six dames—spent a million on every dame."

The list also includes Benny Leonard. At present Kearns has some interest in Archie Moore contender for the heavy-weight throne. Before coming to Vancouver he had been to New York, Chicago and Los Angeles seeking a suitable base for a Moore-Floyd Patterson title bout.

Of Dempsey, Kearns said he was "always a great killer," adding: "Always he could take you down in one crack."

Benefit Coho Derbies On Anglers' Agenda

A rich treasure chest of prizes await Vancouver Island anglers who master the wily coho salmon.

Two big fishing derbies are in the immediate offing and they are restricted to the silver-sided, nasty-tempered coho.

Locally, the Victoria-Saanich Inlet Anglers Association, together with Dowell's Cartage and Victoria Tire Ltd., will sponsor the annual Cerebral Palsy Coho Derby in Saanich Inlet Oct. 13 and 14. Tickets are on sale for the derby and officials are hoping to turn over more than $2,500 proceeds to the local Cerebral Palsy chapter.

For the angler weighing in the biggest coho of the two-day derby, will go the first prize of a complete camping outfit, consisting of a tent, two sleeping bags and ground sheets, a portable cooler, Coleman camp stove and camp light.

THREE-DAY EVENT

This weekend, the Cowichan Bay Salmon Club stages its annual three-day coho derby, a popular event with island anglers.

Proceeds from the weekend (fishfest) will be divided between the Queen Alexandra Solarium and the salmon club itself.

Daily cash prizes of $100 each will be awarded for the biggest fish caught Saturday, Sunday and Monday. There will be two hidden weight prizes each day and 39 additional merchandise prizes.

Fishing runs from dawn to 4:30 p.m. daily and the Government Wharf will be the official weigh-in station.

For non-fishermen, the derby offers as consolation prize the choice between a 10-foot boat and outboard motor, automatic clothes dryer or a fur coat.

The Anchor Café Trophy goes to the angler taking the biggest fish of the three days.

All heffing and live bait will be prohibited and only artificial lures may be used.

Howard Scores Non-Title Victory

HALIFAX (CP)—Richard (Kid) Howard, Canadian lightweight champion, scored a unanimous decision over Irish Glen Flanagan of St. Paul, Minn., Tuesday night in a 10-round, non-title, bout.

It was Howard's last fight in Canada before leaving for Johannesburg, South Africa, where he meets Vic Towel for the British Empire lightweight title next month.

Stengel, Alston Went With 'Best'

Yanks Series Favorite

By JOE REICHLER

BROOKLYN (AP)—Either out of force of habit or because of their past winning ways in this sort of competition, New York ruled a solid 8-to-5 favorite to defeat Brooklyn in the 1956 world series but was only a 6-to-5 choice to win today as the Yankees' Whitey Ford and the Dodgers' Sal Maglie squared off in the opener at Ebbets Field.

A crowd of about 31,000 jammed the ancient Flatbush ball park with Dwight D. Eisenhower, the first president to attend a World Series game in 20 years.

PITCHERS ODD CONTRAST

The pitting of Maglie against Ford made a strange contrast and not only because 39-year-old Sal is righthanded and 28-year-old Ford throws from the left side. Maglie, the oldest pitcher ever to open a World Series, had never won a post-season game, although he has started two, Ford had won three, two over the Dodgers, but in his only previous start at Ebbets Field, he lasted only one inning.

Maglie, the elder, was working with only three days' rest. Ford, the junior, had not pitched since he failed in his bid for victory number 20 last Wednesday.

Yankee manager Casey Stengel's explanation for nominating Ford over his three starting righthanders in a park considered a southpaw's graveyard was simple:

"Ford is my best pitcher," he said, "and I can't afford to hold him out until the third game."

Dodger manager Walter Alston's reason for going with Maglie in preference to his younger starters was equally as simple:

"Sal has been the club's best pitcher over the past two months," he said. "He's won our clutch games and there is no one I'd like better to pitch such an important game as this one."

"Sal has been the club's best pitcher over the past two months," he said. "He's won our clutch games and there is no one I'd like better to pitch such an important game as this one."

Stengel's explanation for nominating Ford over his three starting righthanders in a park considered a southpaw's graveyard was simple:

"Ford is my best pitcher," he said, "and I can't afford to hold him out until the third game."

WHAT'S THE SCORE? BY Denny Boyd

They didn't quite exhumate the corpse of basketball over the weekend but they jabbed the shovel in the right place and, given time, it may be possible to dig it up and pump some plasma into the remains.

It was a great gesture, the officials of the Canadian, B.C. and Vancouver associations coming to Victoria at their own expense and it must have been heartening to the local officials who have fought the battle of loneliness and despair these many years.

The visitors passed out intangible but valuable things, bona fide advice and sincere encouragement. They promised to throw their resources behind Victoria and even offered to bail Victoria out if local officials run into trouble along the way.

Then they went home and left the job to the local people. It's the hope here that, of the many "revive basketball" drives that lived only long enough to gurgled down the drain of failure, this one will be different. Too many sports are dying from malnutrition and abandonment these days and for a change, it would be refreshing to see one sport make a comeback.

A visiting Vancouver delegate, told the meeting, "The secret of our recent success has been mutual trust, co-operation and hard work. There is no place on our commission for petty, personal differences or for individuals to place their own contrived importance out of perspective to the over-all good of the game."

Sound advice, that. And worth following.

Bill Davidson is one Victoria Cougar who didn't have trouble adjusting himself to coach Colin Kilburn's tough but necessary training grind. During the summer, Bill worked nine hours a day, six days a week at his plumbing trade and played baseball on Sunday.

The question that might be asked is: How far is Charlie Bishop going to run Friday night?

Bishop, the stocky Mayo Vampire halfback, cannot plunge with the power of Oak Bay's Rick Ginn or haul in passes like Navy's Ron Young. Yet, Bishop is probably the most exciting player in the Victoria intermediate grid league.

In the opening game with Oak Bay, Bishop took a hand-off on a draw play, slipped through the murderous Drake line and scooted 90 yards for a touchdown. In Vamps' second game, against Navy, Bishop fielded a kickoff and ran it back 82 yards to score. Last Saturday, in an exhibition game against Surrey Rams, Bishop opened the scoring with a 75-yard touchdown jaunt and added a 20-yard run later in the game.

Bishop is small and harmless looking. But so is a hand grenade and both can blow up in your face.

Nanaimo did it up proper for their victorious lacrosse team on their homecoming. At the team's victory banquet, the menu included Peterborough Soup, Victory Relish, Timberman Turkey, Maple Leaf Sauce, Mashed Potatoes a la Trailer-men and Vegetables in (lacrosse) Season.

Ed Varga drew guffaws in the Cougar dressing room last week with this story about the angriest golfer he ever saw.

Ed swears he saw a golfer at Colwood get so mad at hanging three balls into the water on the fourth hole that he walked down to the water, raised his bag of clubs over his head and heaved them into the water.

Then he stalked to the coffee shop and sat down. Everyone who had seen the incident, including Varga, waited around to see if the club tosser would cool off, relent, and rescue the clubs.

Finally, the angry one left the coffee shop, walked back to the pond, took off his shoes and socks, waded in and dragged out the clubs.

While the watchers snickered, thinking he had backed down, the club tosser opened the bag, took out his car keys and then heaved the clubs back in the water and went home.

Painter, Wood Take Greensmen's Honors

The two biggest prizes in Tuesday's annual Victoria Greensmen's Association golf tournament were taken home by the Gorge Vale club.

W. Dainard of Victoria Golf Club second and third, respectively, in the low gross competition, and A. Turner and R. Beggs, both of Victoria Golf Club, finished second and third in the low net list.

Winner of the putting competition was A. C. Smith of Victoria. Winner of the putting competition was A. C. Smith of Victoria. Winner of the putting competition was A. C. Smith of Victoria.

Warriors Lose Stars But Expect Return Aid

WINNIPEG (CP)—Winnipeg Warriors, defending Western Hockey League champions, have plenty of player holes to fill this year and the shuffling won't be over until their National Hockey League partners, finally round out their teams.

Several key players have graduated from the 1955-56 edition of the Warriors after a glorious first year in the WHL when they swept through the league to take the Edinburgh Trophy.

Probably the most notable loss is goaltender Ed Chadwick who is now minding the nets for the NHL Toronto Maple Leafs, one of Winnipeg's parent teams along with Montreal Canadiens. Also with Leafs are forwards Gary Alderson and the Cullen brothers, Barry and Brian.

MOSIENKO BACK Ed Mazur, lumbering scoring threat with Warriors last year, has moved up to Chicago Black Hawks of the NHL while centre Mike Nykoluk and defenceman Mickey Kentling have moved to Rochester of the American Hockey League.

Among the newcomers are Pile had as many as 34 players turning out for practice sessions with including the crowd-pleasing, Guelph, and Art Jones, a slim dippy-doodling Billy Mosienko, centre who led Spokane with 44 goals and 34 assists in the Western International Senior League.

Back with Warriors are defencemen Bill Burega and Fred Shero, captain last season. Defenceman Danny Summers also signed again. Centre Skipper Burchell and left-winger Hugh Barlow are on hand with utility man Cec Hoekstra who filled in on every position but goal a year ago.

Also at the camp are Chuck Lumden, Murray Couch and Andy Voykin who saw limited action with Winnipeg while playing on minor teams last fall and winter. Among the newcomers are Bobby Furman, fifth highest point-getter in the junior OHA last year turning out for practice sessions with 36 goals and 40 assists with including the crowd-pleasing, Guelph, and Art Jones, a slim dippy-doodling Billy Mosienko, centre who led Spokane with 44 goals and 34 assists in the Western International Senior League.

CALLS SIGNALS

Knox to Join Stamps Today

CALGARY (CP)—Football's glamor boy—Ronnie Knox—is due to sign with his second Canadian team this season.

... grid jumper.

The flashy former UCLA quarterback, who left Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Big Four last week in a huff, Tuesday agreed to join the lowly Calgary Stampede of the Western Interprovincial Football Union.

The six-foot-one-inch, 200-pound star, who is under contract to Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, came to terms with the Stampede only hours after arriving from the East with his father, Harvey. Within 15 minutes of agreement, he was on the field and taking part in Stampede's regular workout at Buffalo Stadium.

Because the necessary papers had to be drawn up by lawyers, the official signing was deferred until today. Details of the contract were not disclosed.

It is understood, however, that the monetary part of the deal was completed before Knox left the East. The chief obstacle was a reported insistence by the Stampede of some guarantee Knox would be available for the 1957 season.

The Stampede are believed to have been given an option which they will be able to exercise before the end of the present season. This step would enable the club to decide Knox's future status without having to sign him to a no-cut contract for the remainder of this year and next.

LONDON (AP)—Dick Richardson, Britain's 22-year-old heavyweight hope, scored a disputed victory over Ezzard Charles Tuesday night when the former world champion was disqualified in the second round for "persistent holding."

Rangers, Bruins Tie

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—New York Rangers and Boston Bruins battled to a 2-2 tie in a National Hockey League exhibition game Tuesday night.

Boston's Doug Mohns and Ron Murphy of the Rangers scored one apiece in the second period. Andy Bathgate scored New York's second goal unassisted in the third and Boston's Jack Caffrey tied it up in the fourth.

Mud Moat Surrounds Olympic Park

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP)—Officials Tuesday cancelled the gala opening program planned for Saturday at the newly-completed Olympic Park here.

The park is to be the site of the soccer games and swimming and cycling races at the 1956 Olympics, Nov. 22-Dec. 8. Tuesday it was hemmed in by mud so thick that cars could not park and walkers could not get through without ruining their shoes.

The mud is the product of Melbourne's wettest winter in years. Track trials scheduled for Oct. 13 now will be the first event held there.

Rain also has hit the Olympic village, where the waterlogged ground has delayed planting. Olympic planners said there would be no green lawns worthy of the name unless the spring weather is dry and warm.

Rangers Get Henry

Compulsory First Aid Teaching In B.C. Schools Asked By Doctors

Instruction in first aid and resuscitation should form a compulsory part of the school curriculum in British Columbia, members of the B.C. division, Canadian Medical Association, resolved Tuesday.

The resolution will be brought before the departments of health and education and University of B.C.

The resolution came about due to what Dr. G. R. F. Elliott, Vancouver, committee chairman, called "the increasing number of accidental drownings and traffic accidents."

DANGEROUS

He said mechanical resuscitation could prove dangerous in untrained hands, and was often delayed in arrival. Therefore steps should be taken to train students in artificial respiration as "six to eight minutes is of vital importance for the survival of the patient."

Need for establishing poison control centres "with strong financial support from the government," was stressed by the chairman. He pointed out at least 10 centres are being or will be established in the United States.

It would be primarily an information centre with up-to-date information on the multiplicity of new toxic chemicals, many of which are "now widely used in the home, garden and in industry."

A board of directors will be established to study interrelations of doctors and hospitals, which has been "compounded" in complexity by the

Toronto Thieves Picked the Best

TORONTO (CP)—Thieves who escaped with $19,000 in merchandise from a suburban New Toronto jewelry store showed good taste. Officials of Ostrander's Jewelers said Tuesday the thieves took considerable pain in selecting 273 watches and 15 electric razors from among less expensive items in the looted show cases.

Steel School Can Be Bought By Instalments

C. RY, Ind. (AP)—This steel city is using its major product to build a school officials say is less expensive, faster to erect and can be bought on the instalment plan.

They say it could provide an answer to the national problem of bulging classrooms, revolutionize school construction and help solve financing.

Educationists are watching closely the building of the six-room, one-storey Hosford Park grade school. Its steel construction, builders say, makes it fire-proof and nearly eliminates maintenance.

And it's the first Indiana school ever bought on the down-payment plan.

MAKES DOWN PAYMENT

Calumet Township school district, after a lengthy legal tangle, obtained permission from the state to make a down payment of $15,000. The remainder of the $200,000 cost will be paid next year from the township's accumulated building fund.

The new school cost around $50,000 less than a 10-room brick building, and is expected to be completed by Nov. 1—five months after construction started on a part-time basis.

Inside and out the school will flash with colors porcelainized into the steel. Engineers say the walls will not corrode and will require no painting or expensive upkeep.

Trawlers from Hull in Yorkshire England, landed 275,000 tons of fish valued at nearly £12,000,000 in 1955.

RADIO, TV WORKERS DEMAND PROFITS SHARE

TORONTO (CP)—The National Association of Broadcasting Employees voted Tuesday to seek a shorter work week and a share in the profits of three big networks to offset the effects of automation.

The association, affiliated with the Canadian Labor Congress in Canada and the AFL-CIO in the United States, represents 5,000 radio and television workers employed by the three big groups and many independent concerns.

Bringing Up Baby

HINTS COLLECTED BY Mrs. Jean Gerber (MOTHER OF 5)

One of the nicest things about babies is that they don't measure amusement in terms of dollars and cents. Low-cost happiness: a couple of gaily-colored balloons, attached to baby's crib or play pen, will keep a wee one quietly enchanted. The spinning beauty of a pinwheel, taped to the foot of baby's carriage, is fascinating. Spools strung on a shoestring make a happy clacking toy. And a nest of plastic measuring spoons can really be a joy.

Camera cue. Nothing like a baby to make a parent turn amateur photographer. Cue for outdoor color shots: place baby in the shade, to avoid squints or frowns. Increased speed of the new color film makes it easy to get a good shot in the shade, even with a box camera.

Big Ben Sets Lake Superior Swim for June

The Caesar of the strait, big Ben Laughren, is looking for new waters to conquer and said today he plans to swim in Lake Superior next June.

The Victoria ex-wrestler, who beat Juan de Fuca swimming "the short route" from Port Angeles to the Canadian side and was winner of the Jaycees' mass swim, said he plans the attempt from Port Arthur to a promontory, the Sleeping Giant, 18 miles away.

Three people tried the swim last summer and all were defeated by the extreme cold.

Ben was raised in Port Arthur—his mother still lives there—and has often breasted the waters of the lake.

HE GIVES AWAY GRAND PRIZES

Andy sends a complete, 15-volume set of Compton's Pictured Encyclopedia to Cheryl A. Meservy, age 12, Bountiful, Utah, for her question:

How big was the ancient Lake Bonneville?

Trappers and traders may have found it before. But Captain Bonneville's expedition of 1833 described the big salt lake and put it on the map. He named it Lake Bonneville. Kit Carson and John Fremont explored it 10 years later. In 1847, the hard-working Mormons arrived to turn the desert area into flourishing farmlands. By then, the stretch of water was called the Great Salt Lake.

Such fascinating territory attracted geologists and surveyors. Why, the big lake was changing before their very eyes! In the dry weather it shrank a third of its size. When snows melted from the nearby Rockies it swelled and rose 16 inches. Its waters were five or six times as salty as the sea—and getting saltier. For the lake has no outlet to the ocean. It is fed by the Jordan, Bear, Weber and other rivers. The sun dries up pure vapor from its surface, leaving the salt behind. In a hundred years, the lake lost 100 square miles of its area.

Surely such a changeable lake must have an interesting past! Was it once bigger, smaller, fresher or more salty? The evidence of the past was found carved and built into the rocks of a wide area. Here once stood an ancient lake of fresh water ten times larger than Great Salt Lake. It was named Lake Bonneville in honor of the captain who described the salty lake that remains.

Thousands of years ago, Lake Bonneville covered an area of over 19,000 square miles. That is almost one quarter of the area of the state of Utah. In area, Lake Erie and Lake Ontario, together are three quarters the size of the ancient lake. It was 1,050 feet deep, almost as deep as Lake Superior.

The waters of the ancient lake were fed by snows from the Rockies but they had an outlet to the sea. Water from the lake flowed through Red Rock Pass into the Snake river. The Snake joined the mighty Columbia and the waters of Lake Bonneville were carried on to empty into the Pacific Ocean. Through the Ice Ages, the climate and the geography of the land were changed. At one time, an arm of the sea crept over much of western Utah. Lake Bonneville began to shrink and it lost its outlet to the sea. As it retreated from its beaches, the ancient lake left its marks. On the mountainsides where it once lapped there are traces of 17 different water levels. There are sandbars of ancient shores, water-smoothed cliffs and deltas. The Great Salt Lake, still the biggest lake west of the Mississippi, is all that remains. Its area is about 2,000 square miles, it is from 15 to 18 feet deep, 75 miles long and about 30 miles wide. But it is only a ghost of ancient Lake Bonneville that once covered ten times that area to a depth of about one-fifth of a mile.

Russ Ballet On Tonight In London

LONDON (Reuters)—A day of frantic preparations ended Tuesday night with the announcement the Russian Bolshoi ballet company will open its London season tonight as scheduled with Romeo and Juliet.

But to do so it will have to cancel a Friday performance of Swan Lake.

The announcement was made by David Webster, general administrator of the Covent Garden Opera House, where the Russians will appear.

He said bad weather, which delayed the Russians' arrival and cost them a day's rehearsal, was "almost the crowning mishap."

Director Mikhail Chulaki confirmed that Galina Ulanova, prima ballerina of the company, will dance Swan Lake in a televised performance Oct. 21. The ballet will be "adjusted" for television purposes.

Asked whether the dancers will be allowed to go shopping in London, he grinned and replied: "If they have the money, they will go shopping."

This was a reference to the controversy over the shoplifting charge against dancer throw Nina Ponomareva.

The company's arrival here was delayed by the unwillingness of some of the dancers to visit Britain because of the action against the Russian athlete.

WHO DAT?—It's none other than Greta Garbo, still publicity shy. Unglamorous hair-do and dark glasses help disguise the famed screen star as she boards a plane in Paris, heading for New York after a summer in Nice, France.

TWO for the SHOW

By PHIL LEE

AA (Oscar Class) BB (Worthwhile) C (To put in time)
A (Don't Miss) B (For Rainy Days)

(A) "THE KILLING" (Odeon)—The average movie fan can usually name on sight most of the stars and many of the lesser characters in any given picture. But ask him the name of the director and he will probably flub. This is a pity, for the director is the main cog in every picture produced. Usually he spells the difference between success and failure. Take the case of Stanley Kubrick.

In United Artists' "The Killing" Mr. Kubrick takes some second rank actors and Lionel White's novel "Clean Break" and comes up with the best cops-and-robbers movie of the year, a split-second documentary of a $2,000,000 race track holdup that is as complicated as an Einsteinian theory.

"The Killing" isn't a film for the shoot-'em-and-bury-'em-in-concrete school of audience. It demands intense concentration or the denouement will be lost. While the plot moves inexorably forward the principal characters move backwards in subplots before again joining in the main stream.

has been overlooked and crime is about to pay off.

But there's a chink in the gang's armor. It is little Elisha Cook who lov's his two-timing big blonde wife, Marie Windsor, too well and unwisely. The secret is out, not all of it, in fact hardly any of it. But it's enough. And the audience is kept constantly alert wondering how the foolproof plan will be wrecked.

DIRECTOR KUBRICK must have been kept busier than King Farouk at Monte Carlo as he directed the sub-plots and merged them with the central theme. And the gamble couldn't have been much greater. For a little too much here and little too much there would have destroyed the audience's attention, turning interest into boredom.

Although the cast as a whole is to be commended, it was Miss Windsor and Coleen Gray as Sterling's girl friend, who are responsible for lending "The Killing" its splendid air of reality.

Carnegie Hall Survives Jack Benny

NEW YORK (UP)—Jack Benny, who practises violin in the bathroom of his Beverly Hills home because his wife can't stand the racket, appeared as featured soloist in Carnegie Hall last night.

A glittering audience turned out, presumably in a sort of noble experiment: to see if the hallowed walls would come tumbling down. Mercifully, the walls held fast.

Benny played, backed by 70 members of the New York Philharmonic-Symphony, from the stage which has been graced by such as Richard Strauss, Saint-Saens, Kreisler, Paderewski, Rachmaninoff and Heifetz.

It was a nice concert—if you like "Love in Bloom," a number which the Waukegan, Ill., prodigy interpolated into the gizzard of Pablo Sarasate's "Zigeunerweisen" (Gypsy). He was so persuasive that the symphony, under the direction of Alfred Wallenstein, finally detoured from Sarasate and followed Benny and his theme song.

THIRTY-NINE?

The veteran "39-year-old" comedian, who actually was born in 1894 and began appearing as a violinist in 1912, appeared in a benefit for the "Committee to Save Carnegie Hall."

Using a borrowed Stradivarius, Benny played two solo numbers and sat in with the orchestra for its final number. His second solo was the first movement of Mendelssohn's Concerto. This one he played rather straight, although there was some well-rehearsed comedy.

Benny told the audience: "My

Peace Loving Ike Lashing at Foes

President Steps Up Campaign Heat; Adlai Bulding Up Speaking Program

By GEORGE KITCHEN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (CP)—Dwight D. Eisenhower, billed by the Republicans as a man of peace, is beginning to strike back at his campaign opponents with all the vigor of a man of war.

As the drive for the Nov. 6 United States election unfolds, the 65-year-old president and "Second World War general" is showing signs of dropping the soft approach and mounting the kind of offensive that put him into the White House four years ago.

As part of his expanding campaign schedule, Eisenhower turned up for an election speech Monday night at Lexington, Ky., and it immediately became apparent that he had been nettled by Democratic criticism of his administration, the first Republican government to hold power in the United States in 20 years.

ADLAI "CONFUSED"

He ripped into Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee and his foe in the 1952 election, as an "apparently confused candidate" and characterized the Democrats as people who "suffer from living in a world of words and phrases for so long they can no longer recognize action when they see it."

That was the kind of political drumfire he aimed at Stevenson in 1952 and, with soft spots beginning to appear in the Republican campaign front in many strategic areas, the American voting public can expect to hear more of the same.

Stevenson, for his part, barnstormed through the key state of New Jersey Tuesday and revived an early campaign call upon Eisenhower to take the leadership in a move to ban hydrogen bomb tests in a fresh step toward peace. It was a step which, he suggested, the other great powers would be willing to take.

RAPS DRAFT

Earlier, probing into the national field, Stevenson renewed a plea that Eisenhower abolish the military draft, describing enforced military service as "a wasteful, inefficient and often unfair" way of maintaining armed forces strength.

Eisenhower already has brushed off Stevenson's proposal for an H-bomb ban as a "theatrical national gesture."

The influential Washington Post and Times Herald Tuesday chided Stevenson for trying to "have it both ways" by calling for an end to the draft and at the same time criticizing the Republican administration for weakening national defence.

Meantime, both parties ex-

POPCORN POLL PUTS IKE AHEAD

STOCKTON, Calif. (AP)—Ike is leading Adlai in a presidential popcorn poll dreamed up by a Stockton movie theatre.

Popcorn buyers in the lobby are invited to take their choice from 10-cent sacks marked either "I Like Ike" or "I Adore Adlai."

Manager Charles M. Pin-cus says the Republican president is leading his Democratic opponent by 5,842 to 2,301.

panded their campaign schedules, obviously determined to keep their key candidates on public view as much as they can. The televised election speech, once heralded as the big vote-getter for this campaign, is taking a back seat.

NEW VISITS PLANNED

The White House announced that Eisenhower, who earlier had committed himself to only a half-dozen TV talks and one campaign trip, will make visits to New York City, Minnesota, Washington and Oregon later this month. This, as the New York Times noted, is only the latest indication that the Republicans realize they had "better not take anything for granted."

Eisenhower's running mate, Vice-President Richard E. Nixon, neared the finish of a 32-state campaign swing and promptly laid plans for another sweep around the country.

Stevenson, already on an ex-

Anniversary Dinner For Insurance Men

Fiftieth anniversary of the Canadian Life Underwriters Association will be celebrated by Victoria Life Underwriters in a dinner Oct. 25 at 6.30 p.m. in Victoria Golf Club.

PIPE OF PEACE, presented to Democratic presidential nominee Adlai Stevenson by Seminole and Cherokee Indians on his campaign visit to Tulsa, Okla., was followed by speech in which Stevenson declared world peace was the "overriding issue" in the Nov. 6 elections.

KEY STATE SENTIMENTS

California, Texas Veering to Democrats

(This is the first of a series of election campaign snapshots by AP political reporters who are surveying sentiment in key states across the U.S.)

CALIFORNIA

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—An aggressive, well-organized Democratic campaign is forcing Republicans to get out and hustle to maintain President Eisenhower's edge in California.

A statewide tour showed grass roots signs that, for a variety of reasons, Eisenhower has lost ground here. He's in solid with Republicans. But, what matters, he appears less popular with the state's all-important majority Democrats.

Democratic officials, united behind a ticket they consider made-to-order for California, are highly optimistic.

Democrats are hopeful of gaining two seats in the House of Representatives, where the state's line-up now is 19 Republicans to 11 Democrats. And the state legislature, traditionally Republican, is closer to going Democratic than at any time in the present century.

In the Eisenhower-Stevenson race, Republicans recognize the Nov. 6 outcome—good for 32 electoral votes—is likely to be closer than Ike's runaway victory in 1952. Eisenhower returned California to the Republican column after it went to Franklin D. Roosevelt four times and to Harry Truman in 1948.

TEXAS

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Drive east along U.S. Highway 80, and you soon run into what Texans call brass collar Democrats. They are the ones who, no matter what, vote the "straight" Democratic ticket.

This is the year when the brass collar boys in these parts say "I told you so" to those who four years ago left the Democratic party and gave Texas' 24 electoral votes to Dwight D. Eisenhower.

For a mammoth drought has turned the grass bright yellow, as if the ground were covered with newly-threshed straw. Trees are dying. The good black earth appears to be as hard as concrete.

Obviously it wouldn't have rained any more if Adlai Stevenson had carried Texas in 1952. But in times of discontent, it's convenient to blame the party in power.

Anyone touring this state, listening to what the ordinary voters say about Eisenhower's chances of keeping Texas away from Stevenson again in the presidential election Nov. 6, will find this a good spot to begin.

For it illustrates some of the problems the Republicans are up against in a state that only twice in history has given its support to a Republican presidential candidate. The other time was in 1928, when Texas balked at Alfred E.

THANK GOODNESS

Premiere Scentless—Star Reluctant

EDMONTON (CP)—What might have been the first performance in Edmonton's new provincial auditorium might have been a stinker if it had happened, but police said the artist, a skunk, left the ventilating shaft of the building without performing.

The constables who coaxed it out said they didn't get a scent for the job.

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—

The teacher in the first grade at Ralph Street School quickly called police when she saw a six-year-old child slump over her desk.

Police, a rescue squad and a doctor answered the emergency call. The doctor drove the child home to complete the examination and later reported nothing wrong with her.

"She was tired and fell asleep," the doctor said.

VANCOUVER (CP)—

The one conclusive fact to come from experiments linking smoking with cancer is that smoking is bad for mice. Dr. Arthur Peart of Toronto, assistant director of the Canadian Medical Association, said here Monday.

RETAIL GROUP MEETING

Alberni Forum Set On Insurance Plans

"Business Insurance and Estate Planning for the Retailer" will be the subject of a meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada, B.C. branch, in the Alberni city hall Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Talks will be given by the following: Alex Forst, chairman of the management committee, RMAC, will speak on "Trading Stamps." W. H. Knox, group representative of the Great-West Life Assurance Company, will discuss group insurance and the RMA group plan.

visior of the Great-West Life Assurance Company, will speak on aspects of business insurance for the retailer.

K. G. Pippett, trust officer of Canada Permanent Trust Company, will discuss "The Will as it Affects the Carrying on of Your Business."

Question period will follow the talks. In 1955 the Christmas Bureau of Victoria operated on a budget of $55 and received a Community Chest grant of $472 with the remainder of the funds unsolicited donations from individuals and groups.

AROUND AND ABOUT

With Jo Healy

I'M IMPRACTICAL ENOUGH to receive with glee from the mail-order houses letters that follow closely on the final payment of one's budget account. You know. The ones that state with affection that "you have now established an excellent credit record at . . . For this reason you are free to make additions to your account with NO DOWN PAYMENT and NO INCREASE IN YOUR MONTHLY PAYMENT."

THE SMALL VOICE within that deplores the extravagance of paying the carrying charges on such budget accounts whimpers forlorn and unheeded. We're looking, through the new fall and winter catalogue. We're shopping like crazy, and the rustle of the pages and the excited cries of selection drown out that mean little inner complaint. We're picking out the winter school clothes, and whether it be the latest in reversible tartan skirts, or the correct "Ivy League" drape of the new style boys' slacks, each selection must be weighed with the most serious consideration.

MEASUREMENTS must be taken, checked and double-checked against the charts provided in the fat manual. Heights are compared with the old marks on the door jamb. This is a twice-yearly ritual, this "making out the order," and inches can be added to a young frame in a span of six months. So we check to make sure, and the evening, especially set aside for this solemn event, slides away as indecision spends the quick minutes. She glances over the jewelled array of sweaters covering two whole pages—how to choose? He hesitates at the pages of sports shirts—plain corduroys this year, or—bright plaids.

Price Figuring Easier Than Shopping

Then we turn to fabrics, and out come the patterns bought in advance of this night's work. Yardages are compared with the pattern measurements, and high mathematics employed to figure the possible three and one-eighths yards at the confusing sum of $1.67 per yard.

THE BOOKKEEPER—that's me—is slightly addled when the long list is printed on the order form, checked under the columns for size and color, computed, signed, and sealed in the envelope. But not as tired, stepped on, shoved around and brow-beaten as if that shopping had been personally attended to in a large department store in an overcrowded city.

"Just list the items you want, sign the order, and mail today," smiles the letter.

YOU BET I WILL, honey. And like you say, "that extra buying power can give you the things you need for fall without upsetting your family or personal budget."

Muttering about long-range economy, little voice? Quiet. I'm short-sighted anyway, and willing to pay for the convenience of doing the job at the kitchen table, feet propped up and a cup of coffee in my hand. In one brief evening's sprint.

Driver Killed Under Rolling Road Grader

PORT ALBERNI—Grader operator Burton Saint John, about 50, was killed here late Tuesday when his machine toppled off a 20-foot bank on a logging road, crushing the driver.

The accident took place about one-quarter mile below Sproat Falls.

The victim has been an employee of MacMillan & Bloedel for 11 years.

He is survived by his wife and a daughter living here.

Date of the inquest will be set later today.

Building Permits In Nanaimo Drop

NANAIMO—Building permits here for September totalled $120,364 compared to the September, 1955, total of $346,208.

From January 1 total was $2,446,527, down about $300,000 from last year.

However, a planned addition and remodelling of the T. Eaton Co. store costing $850,000 may be applied for this year, while $300,000 is likely to be spent on a new Vancouver Island gas plant.

Chemainus Area Kinsmen Raised $2,665 in 1955 CHEMAINUS—The Kinsmen Club here raised $2,665 for service work last year, retiring president Murray Poskitt said at the joint Kinsmen-Kinette installation. Of this amount $1,537 was for the B.C. Polio Fund.

Kinsmen donated $250 to the Little League baseball committee; $107 to local and national appeals; spent $150 on new equipment for their park and playground, and another $115 on park maintenance. Mr. Poskitt also noted that the club had won three trophies in district competition and a fourth trophy in competition with clubs all across Canada.

Highlight of the Kinette report came when retiring president Joan Syme presented the Kinsmen Club with a cheque for $145.

Kinsmen officers installed were: Joe Carmichael, president; Jim Reid, vice-president; Bill Steln, secretary; John Wernys, treasurer; Tom Greenhorn, registrar; Len Robinson, Bernie Hume-Smith and Nick Malka, directors. Kinette officers were: Joan Allester, president; Lynn Poskitt, vice-president; Pat Hume-Smith, secretary-treasurer; Esme Syme, registrar.

Installing officer was Deputy Governor Fred Martens of Victoria.

Bill Syme was named the outstanding Chemainus Kinsman of the year and was presented with the club trophy by last year's winner, Jack Miller.

TIP FROM FISHERMAN

Frigates Hunt Down Live Drifting Mine

A Prince Rupert fisherman, the Victoria office of the department of transport, and five Esquimalt-based units of the RCN teamed up Tuesday to destroy a dangerous mine drifting off the West Coast of Vancouver Island.

The fisherman, Walter Thomson, aboard the Bounty No. 1, spotted the mine and at 11:15 a.m. radioed its position to Gordon Head wireless.

The department of transport marine agent was notified, and he in turn alerted naval intelligence.

At 11:25 a.m., naval operations ordered five frigates of the second Canadian escort squadron to break off squadron exercises and destroy the mine.

The frigates were exercising in West Coast waters, not far from the mine-sighting.

At 3 p.m., the frigates messaged that the mine was destroyed by gunfire.

It is believed the mine is a relic of the Second World War, probably a fixed mine that had broken loose from its mooring and drifted across the Pacific.

Logger's Death Ruled Accidental CAMPBELL RIVER—A coronor's jury here Tuesday ruled as accidental the death Monday of 22-year-old Lothar Elgert, crushed under a log which fell off a loading deck at Larsen Logging Co. operations on Ramsay Arm.

He suffered multiple chest, jaw and head fractures.

A German immigrant, he is survived by his mother in Germany.

Power Project Workers Ignore Picket Lines

CAMPBELL RIVER—Some 500 of the 700 construction workers at B.C. Power Commission projects in the Campbell River area have returned to their jobs though members of the Rock and Tunnel Workers Union are maintaining picket lines.

However, there were reports that a number of the men who have gone back to work may leave again if the dispute is not settled soon.

The trouble began Sept. 13 when the Rock and Tunnel Workers set up picket lines in efforts to force recognition of their union by contractors.

The contractors already had an agreement with the Hod Carriers International Union, with which the rock workers have broken.

Other workers at first observed the picket lines. Tuesday, however, three electrical workers whose union had previously shown strong support for the picketers returned to work.

DEBUTS FOR STARLETS

Gov.-Gen. Massey's Niece on Broadway

By WILLIAM GLOVER
NEW YORK (AP) — A big bevy of young actresses—the largest group in years—will make their debuts in Broadway's spotlight this season. Among them is a niece of Canada's governor-general, Vincent Massey.

They have a dazzling assortment of looks, talent and charm—and each will be hoping for the critical acclaim and audience shouts that launch an overnight skyride to stardom.

Fifteen newcomers fresh to the big time have won important roles in 10 shows due for early arrival. That's about double an ordinary season's total—and half this season's casting is yet to be completed.

GOT THE BREAKS

There isn't any special reason, of course. It all resulted from a combination of lucky chances—the type of dramas picked for production, the alertness of talent scouts, and in a few cases because a girl happened by at the right moment.

The oldest is 28, the youngest 10. Their composite age is just 21, their height five feet 4½ inches, their eyes blue and hair blonde.

Two of them hold the title roles in upcoming comedies. Pippa Scott is the "Child of Fortune" who arrives Nov. 13 at the Royale, and Anna Massey is "The Reluctant Debutante" who bows Oct. 10 at the Henry Miller Theatre.

BACK FROM LONDON

Miss Scott, 20, with auburn hair and green eyes, came home from studies at London's Royal Academy of Dramatic Arts just in time. A Los Angeles girl who had been abroad two years, she couldn't get a stage job in England because of stringent regulations about foreign performers.

A friend sent her a week later to producer Jed Harris. He took one look, and told her "you will be wonderful" in the play written by Guy Bolton from Henry James' novel "Wings of the Dove."

Miss Massey, 19-year-old niece of Canada's governor-general, is getting her big break because of a four-way switch in casting "The Reluctant Debutante." Star Edna Best was forced to retire from the play because of illness and her real-life daughter, Sarah Marshall, thereupon also stepped out.

To replace them, producer Gilbert Miller reached over to the London version of the comedy, persuaded Adrienne Allen to replace Miss Best, and bring her real-life daughter, Miss Massey, along for the ingenue part.

Brunette Anna, whose father is star Raymond Massey (he and Miss Allen are divorced) will make her Broadway bow in the role that first brought her on-stage in England 18 months ago.

Lissome, blonde, 21-year-old Diana van der Vlis is a young Canadian from Toronto who has had to learn to box, step old-fashioned dances and handle a live alligator for her big chance in "The Happiest Millionaire." She's not complaining—her leading man will be the Canadian-born star, Walter Pidgeon. The Kyle Crichton comedy is due Oct. 29.

Expelled Sacred Denies Abusing Bennett, Bonner

VANCOUVER (CP) — Harry Erickson, expelled from the Social Credit Party last Friday, denied today he ever made "scurrilous attacks" on Premier Bennett or Attorney-General Robert Bonner, and said he has written copies of every public speech he made during the recent provincial election campaign.

Mr. Erickson, campaign manager for independent candidate Ernest Allstone, who was defeated, was expelled by 86 members of the Point Grey Social Credit Association for "scurrilous attacks" on the premier and attorney-general.

"Of course, Premier Bennett and his government won't stand for any criticism, no matter how well meant or deserving," Mr. Erickson said.

RESCUERS WAVED AWAY BY FIRE-TRAPPED PILOT

ROCKLAND, Mass. (AP) — A United States naval reserve flyer perished in the burning wreckage of his downed jet plane Tuesday night after waving away three would-be rescuers for fear an explosion would harm them.

Scores of other persons stood by at a safer distance and saw the flames kill Lieut. Donald R. Good, 27, father of two children and a commercial pilot in civilian life.

Three men were scorched slightly while trying desperately to pry open the plastic cockpit canopy which jammed after the plane crashed.

Eyewitnesses said Good was still alive while the men were trying to free him. He died in the flames after waving away the men who had succeeded in opening the canopy only a few inches.

$18,878 Found In 'Poverty' Stricken Home

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — Authorities counted $18,878 Tuesday out of a garbage can they used to haul away money found hidden in a two-room Fresno home where the John Domke family lived in near poverty.

The money, some of it in gold coins, was discovered Monday after authorities removed the body of John Domke, 87, from a bed where he had lain dead for eight days.

The widow, Mary, 78, was taken to Fresno General Hospital for observation on court orders. The son, Albert, 52, was jailed on charges of resisting officers. They said he put up a battle when they took his father away.

Paper bills sticking out of a lard can led the search. Money was found secreted in scattered receptacles and was dumped into the garbage can for transportation to a bank.

The money-laden can was so heavy a reporter couldn't lift it. The hoard was in $1 to $20 bills, some of them large-sized bills that went out in the 1920s, and silver and gold coins.

'Doctors Need Religion'

The well-rounded doctor should have a "religious understanding, and, better still, a religious belief," Dr. Stanley Gilder, Toronto editor of the Canadian Medical Association Journal and associate editor, World Medical Journal, said here today.

If a doctor's own life has no meaning, he can't adequately deal with life and death, he said.

"Without this belief, the world itself is a hideous joke and preserving life is pointless."

Aim of all doctors, said the 47-year-old Scotland-born editor, is "helping men to live and die."

Dr. Gilder, who addressed the B.C. division, Canadian Medical Association conference here Tuesday, said the best doctors are not necessarily those who are clever or brilliant—"the smart fellow"—but rather the type of practitioner who has deep feeling for his patients.

"Cleverness is not an essential attribute."

The success of any doctor, he said, in terms of efficiency, must be measured on the interest he has in persons.

He answered the often-repeated question of whether or not doomed patients, such as those suffering from inoperable cancer, should be told their condition.

"The consensus now is that the patient should be told the truth, in keeping with his intelligence and understanding."

He forecast the day when the patient would be a part of the "healing team," as in present day psychoanalysis. A half-century ago this concept of doctor-patient relationship, he said, would have been unthought-of.

He termed "absolute nonsense" the suggestion forwarded that any form of sadism existed in the profession.

"The physician is an artist, who exercises his craft on a human being, a far cry from sadistic impulses."

These rumors had been tossed out by some of the more "irresponsible" types in the field of mental behavior, he suggested.

'Prescribe Any Treatment' Doctors Told

Martin Clarifies New Regulation

B.C. Hospital Insurance regulations permit doctors to prescribe any treatment or diagnostic service required, whether or not it is covered by BCHIS, Health Minister Eric Martin told a luncheon meeting of the B.C. Division, Canadian Medical Association, in the Empress Hotel today.

He said he had been told some doctors believed they could not prescribe treatments not specifically covered by BCHIS.

"You're the doctor," he said. "You are the only person who says what the patient will receive. You make all decisions in this regard, and any hospital in this province will make sure your instructions are carried out."

Mr. Martin referred to an order-in-council passed a few months ago, allowing a hospital to bill a patient for any treatment or diagnostic service received which normally would have been rendered on an out-patient basis and which is not connected with the condition under which patient was admitted to the hospital.

NO LEGAL RIGHT

"This new regulation was introduced because some hospitals had always operated on such a basis but had no legal right to do so. The regulations made no such provision for billing the patient, although the act specifically excludes from benefit any treatment or diagnostic services for non-acute conditions."

The health minister called for closer relationship-between the medical profession and the government.

"I am very hopeful that the future will be quite bright in this regard. It is my most sincere wish that the best possible relationships exist at all times between the medical profession and the government."

(Earlier, Mr. Martin told The Times that the present government policy of not covering the cost of cortisone, ACTH and other drugs under BCHIS would be subject to change if special recommendations were made by the medical profession.)

Water Rate Protests To Be Heard

The Public Utilities Commission today extended until Oct. 15 the deadline for receiving submission against a water rate increase in the rural area served by the Greater Victoria Water Board.

The previous deadline was Sept. 12.

The water board has asked for increased schedules of rates that would boost the average household's water bill by about 75 cents a month, according to the water commissioners.

Meeting in the Legislative Buildings today, the PUC received submissions from the water board on one side, and representatives of—Colwood, View Royal and the non-municipal part of Strawberry Vale on the other.

H. J. Bruch, Social Credit MLA for Esquimalt, said the basic objection was that the districts represented had no representation on the water board.

"We should either have representation on the board or else there should have been public meetings at which these increases could be explained to householders affected," Mr. Bruch told the commission.

In a brief presented on behalf of Greater Victoria Water District, water commissioner I. D. Lachlan submitted two points:

1. You cannot run an efficient and expanding water system in a widely scattered rural area on 1956 costs with 1932 income.
2. There is no mystic power in water transportation by which the effects of inflation can be by-passed.

"The choice has to be made now and may have to be made again in the future between remaining static or expanding on a pay-as-you-go basis," Mr. Lachlan said.

Investment Borrowing At New High

Borrowers are practically lining up to get money for the multitude of investment possibilities in Canada, Nigel H. Gunn, president of the Investment Dealers' Association of Canada, said here today.

The nation's investment dollar, he said, has never been so sought after.

He described as "terrific" the demand for money to meet industrial and government expansion programs.

Mr. Gunn said so many persons are chasing available goods and services that bids on projects often are extremely high.

Job of his 450-member association—205 head offices and 250 branch offices across Canada—is to bring the lender and the borrower of money together. Members mainly distribute investment-type securities.

Host to Mr. Gunn while on a two-day visit here with business houses and government officials is Harry Mearns, of the A. E. Ames Co., Ltd., investment house.

BETWEEN TIMES

By

MONTE ROBERTS

My old friend Century Sam has finally made the front page of the newspaper.

All I can say is, it is about time. Century Sam is, by long odds, the most notable, memorable, and irreplaceable person it has ever been my good fortune to meet.

I can only hope you, too, will have the good fortune to meet Century Sam in person, and it is possible you will do so before the B.C. centennial celebration is over in 1958.

To most people Century Sam is only a drawing in a newspaper, and this is a pity, for Sam himself is larger than life.

Sam

Not in stature. In stature, he isn't very large, but then, he isn't very small, either.

It is in his breadth of outlook and his physical prowess that Century Sam is so remarkable.

And yet modest.

Like most of us who live in B.C., he is reluctant to boast of his accomplishments. I have known Century Sam since he was barely older than quarter-century Sam, and in that period he has told me the story of Kicking Horse Pass less than a thousand times.

(Kicking Horse Pass was created when Century Sam became incensed at one of his pack animals, and in attempting to kick it over the Crow's Nest and back into Alberta where it belonged, inadvertently missed, thus dislodging 2,000,000 tons of rock and forming Kicking Horse Pass. Since then, Sam has become a member of the SPCA and slightly limp in his right leg.)

But despite Century Sam's reticence about his own achievements, it is possible to get him to tell of his part in some of the milestones of B.C. progress.

How, for instance, disguised as an Indian, he was on hand at Great Sir James Douglas when Sir James landed at what later became Fort Victoria. When Sir James said: "How," Sam replied "And How!" and the two became fast friends.

Sam (when you get to meet him) may also tell you of the development of the Caribou road, Sam may modestly admit he, personally, supplied the Caribou.

Century Sam, however, is unlikely to tell you how the great gold rush of '38 was started. Sam spread a rumor about the mother lode having been found, but he is not too proud of this, as he was loded at the time.

Under close questioning, Century Sam will tell you he liked to experiment with larger and ever larger bows and arrows. Finally he fashioned a bow and arrow so huge that, when he loosed the arrow, it fell to earth and dug the hole now known as the Arrow Lakes.

As you can plainly see, Century Sam is a modest person, typical of the quiet, unassuming population of British Columbia, and a fitting trademark for the Centennial Celebration.

Angered Woman Chases Thieves

Purse Taken By Juveniles

Two juveniles and five teen-agers figured in a minor "kid crime wave" overnight in the Victoria area.

The juveniles snatched a purse from Ethel Marie Hoskins, 1037 Burdett.

She reported to police she was walking along Burdett, near Quadra, about 7 p.m. Tuesday and noticed two boys about 12 or 14 walking on the other side of the street.

When she reached Collinson and Blanshard, they crossed over, snatched her purse, containing a small amount of cash and personal papers.

Miss Hoskins gave chase when the boys ran off, but they outdistanced her, she reported. She described them as about five feet two, and one was wearing a buckskin coat.

Passerby Frank Humble, 1147 Rockland, averted a break-in at Logan Sheet Metal, 618 Queens, when three youths trying to enter the building ran off as he approached premises about 8.30 p.m.

The young men were described to police as in their late teens and all wore light colored jackets.

James Campbell, 3333 Shelbourne, told police he spotted two youths loading parcels into a car outside Busy Bee Grocery, Hillside at Prior, this morning at 1.25.

When he stopped his car, one youth ran down Prior, the other drove off in the car. Police searched the district without results.

Workers are, top left, Henry Blokzy and Angelo Roncoto. Arena commission has authorized expenditure of $13,700 for the job.

Union Dispute Breaks Out Again To Halt Repair Job at CPR Dock

About five workmen who were to have resumed repairs to Belleville Street CPR wharf today were called off the job in a resumption of a union jurisdictional dispute which flared last spring.

The repair contract is held by George Wheaton Ltd. Replacement of old planking was started in May, then halted for the tourist season. Two carpenters, one truck driver and two or three laborers were to start again today, but company officials reported they were called off the job by business agents of the carpenters' and piledrivers' unions.

Piledrivers' business agent Don Bushell refused comment on the work stoppage. He said, "The sheriff has been around here once this morning." An injunction was issued last spring to prevent union officials from further interference with the repair job. Today's work stoppage could be a violation of the court order and the reason for the sheriff's call. Mr. Bushell would not say.

The earlier dispute arose when the contracting firm placed carpenters on the job which was claimed by the Piledrivers Bridge, Dock and Wharf Builders' Local No. 2415.

COURT DECISION

A supreme court decision later ruled the carpenters should handle heavy timbers which the piledriver union workers said they normally fashioned and put in place.

In face of the disagreement the carpenters stopped work.

The contractor then launched suit against both unions and their business agents. Use of the pile drivers on the job would have entailed higher pay rates.

G. H. Wheaton said this morning, "We planned to have some carpenters start work today. The men went down there."

"But apparently the carpenters went to the union hall last night and were told by union officials they must transfer to the piledrivers' union. Then they were given a new agreement and told they must adhere to it."

SUSPENSION THREAT

He said by the terms of the new agreement the men could not work on the job without danger of being suspended by the union. "By the earlier court decision it seems clear we were entitled to do this work. They (the union officials) have interfered."

Mr. Wheaton said under the terms of the piledrivers' agreement the foreman and the laborers on the job are ruled out.

"We are not too sure what steps we'll have to take."

Drinkers Stock Up To Beat Price Rise

Many Victorians are stocking in extra supplies of hard liquor in anticipation of price increases of up to 16 1/2 per cent in the near future.

An early rush of trade was reported when Victoria's two main liquor stores at Humbolt and Johnson opened their doors at 10 a.m. today and a few customers bought whisky, rum and gin in case lots. However, by noon the rush had ceased and trade returned to normal weekday buying.

"There is nothing in the nature of a panic," one liquor vendor said, "and we had no difficulty handling the early trade. We have, however, had a number of telephone inquiries as to what increases will be and when they may be expected."

As announced Tuesday, the B.C. Liquor Control Board has been notified of new prices by the House of Seagram and Alberta Distillers Ltd. Increases quoted average 15 per cent but because of the federal sales tax paid by the Liquor Control Board, actual increased cost to the board will be 16 1/2 per cent.

CITY STAFF HELPS

Chest Total 15% Ahead Of Last Year

Contributions of almost $10 per employee were received today in a lightning Community Chest canvass of workers at Victoria city health centre.

The gifts and pledged gifts from 36 stenographers, secretaries, department heads, nurses and social workers helped to boost the Red Feather campaign to the 15 per cent mark by noon. Total collections stand at $33,247 as compared to $28,326 at the same date last year.

Workers at Standard Furniture increased their 1956 gift by 40 per cent to $350.

GIVING MORE

Owen Karn, co-chairman of the large firms canvass, said: "We are receiving wonderful support from organized labor. The majority of employees and employers have indicated they will give more than in previous years."

There are 19 agencies in the chest this year, asking a total community gift of $220,000.

Chairman of the Chinese division, Peter Wong, said the Chinese community canvass is completely organized now and calls will begin Tuesday.

The general district-wide residential canvass is set to go October 16 and officials hope the 1,000 canvassers will complete the job the following day. Some housewives have already begun their canvass.

Vancouver and Montreal chests are following the same two-day clean-up plan.

ALL BRANDS

New prices cover all brands, including rye, rum, scotch and gin.

"Amount of the increase to be passed onto the consumer has still to be decided," a spokesman for the B.C. Liquor Control Board said today.

ASK The TIMES

Q—Bishop DeMel, in his sermon in Christ Church Cathedral last Sunday morning, dealing with the danger to the life of the people of the growth of materialism at the expense of the spiritual nature of man, used the word hedonist. What is a hedonist?—D.L.C.

A—By way of explanation, this column can do no better than quote the Oxford English Dictionary's definition: "One who maintains the doctrine of hedonism." It defines hedonism as: "The doctrine or theory of ethics in which pleasure is regarded as the chief good or proper end of action." The words hedonism, hedonist, hedonic came into English from classical Greek. These words are well known to students of philosophy, who are fully aware of the discussion through which this attitude toward life has been in progress.

Anyone wishing a question answered is invited to send the problem along to The Times, addressed to "Ask The Times" Editor. Questions and answers will be published daily.

NOW, TAKE IT EASY . . .

Will it rain? Snow? Hail? Blow? Weatherman Frank Williams hopes not—at least not while he is here from Vancouver weather office subbing for Bill Mackie, on holiday. But it was a mite chilly overnight, with frost in most areas. Annoying Pacific storms threaten stormy weather, says Frank, although we can expect sunshine Thursday.—(Times photo by Halkett.)

This Cookie Rolling Pin Places High on Gift List

By PENNY SAVER

Gift ideas that suit the personality of the receiver are what everyone wants when gift-giving time comes around. Maybe she's a real home body; in that case, the novel cookie rolling pin would be a gift appreciated not only by her, but by all who enjoy the attractively decorated cookies as well. Twelve patterns are indented on the rolling surface so that as you roll out the dough, flowers, fruit and little figures are pressed onto the cookies. Lines outlining the patterns also mark the dough so that all you do is cut along the lines. The price is popular, too, at $1.

An artist in the group? There are many types of artist, and if playing hostess is one of a friend's talents, then the palette tray and glasses that look like daubs of paint will be the perfect thought. Made of lightweight metal, the tray and "glasses" are delicately tinted in a variety of shades. There are two styles, one with slightly larger, different shaped glasses. They're $6.95 and $7.95.

For baby, here's bath thermometer that's a bathing time companion as well. It's a tubby little plastic turtle that registers hot, warm, tepid, temperate and cool on the thermometer. In either blue or pink plastic, the turtles are $1.75.

When removing wieners, eggs or corn from pots of boiling water, a large strainer spoon that holds the items securely is a wonderful thing to have. No more burnt fingers or balancing acts with spoons for you, 'cause the strainer spoon I saw has a trough at either side of the bowl of the spoon to hold elongated foods like wieners or corn. Eggs fit neatly in the centre. Of shiny metal, it costs 50 cents.

A pocket dictionary bound in leather caught my eye in a downtown store. In red or tan, there are English or French-English dictionaries for just $1. Purse or pocket-size, they will be handy for some friend who's traveling.

New orlon sweaters with comfortable and smart boat necklines are favorites in the new fall shipments. With set-in three-quarter length sleeves, these sweaters come in blue, grey, beige, black, cherry and coral and cost $5.98.

Tips on Cooking Turkey For Thanksgiving Dinner

It's time once more to think about Thanksgiving's turkey dinner.

Following are some of the recurring questions from home-makers on preparing and cooking turkey. You probably have had the same questions run through your minds many times. So these answers may prove useful to you.

Q. Must frozen turkey be thawed before cooking?

A. It is recommended that poultry be thawed before cooking, because:

1. It is easier to rinse the body cavity and make sure it is free of any bits of lungs, windpipe, etc.

2. It is difficult to stuff a frozen bird.

3. If a coating is to be used as for fried poultry, it will not stick to frozen meat.

4. A frozen bird takes longer to cook.

Thawing does not apply to the new frozen-stuffed birds which are all ready to go into the oven. They should be placed unwashed in the roasting pan as directed on the freezer wrapper.

Q. What is the best way to thaw poultry?

A. The safest way to thaw frozen meat is in the refrigerator, though this takes longer than when left at room temperature. Allow approximately five hours per pound for thawing turkey in the refrigerator or approximately one hour per pound at room temperature.

Q. Can Thanksgiving turkey be roasted unstuffed?

A. Of course. Sprinkle body cavity with salt and monosodium glutamate and a little poultry seasoning, if desired.

POULTRY DRESSING

The latest wrinkle according to the Poultry Products Institute is to cook the dressing outside the turkey. Just add an egg or two to your favorite poultry stuffing to make it moist enough to shape into balls, brush with melted butter and bake on a cookie sheet in a hot oven for 15 to 20 minutes until crisp and golden on the outside.

The poultry is roasted unstuffed (shortening the cooking period about five minutes to the pound) and when done is removed to a warm "resting place." The oven temperature is boosted to 400 degrees F. and the dressing balls cooked.

"This 'resting period' for the poultry is recommended as it makes the meat easier to carve, and it also allows time for gravy making and doing those other last-minute jobs.

Serve the roast turkey surrounded with the dressing balls and garnish with parsley.

TURKEY LEFTOVERS

Deep fat fry thick slices or chunks of leftover cooked turkey for a delectable treat. First dip the turkey chunks or slices in fine bread or cracker crumbs, then in egg (which has been beaten with a little water and seasonings) and finally in crumbs again. Fry in deep fat or in an inch of fat in a heavy frying pan until golden. Turn once to brown evenly, if necessary. Serve with cranberry, crabapple or red currant jelly.

Slenderizing Comes to Victoria In a New, Modern Presentation

By NONA DAMASKE

I really had not planned on being a guinea pig, but I asked so many questions that a practical demonstration seemed the only answer.

Fortunately, I'm not overweight but I must admit sometimes I do become quite tense. So, we decided the demonstration would correct my tenseness.

Well... after 10 minutes' treatment on three of the six lounge tables in the new Stauffer System Salon on Tuesday afternoon my tenseness had completely disappeared.

I was as relaxed as a bit of plywood.

What is the Stauffer System? It's designed to help you slenderize without too strenuous a session.

In fact, it's a system of passive exercise which I was told is the most modern method of slenderizing known today.

It's new in Victoria, of course, but it should take hold rapidly if I know my Victoria women.

ALL THE ANGLES

In the attractive salon, Mrs. Jean Van Luven (the woman who knows all about this slenderizing business) has opened on Fort Street you'll find a series of curtained cubicles.

In these cubicles are six lounge tables on each of which the patron reclines and relaxes for 10 minutes.

You relax—and a gently moving platform does the work! The object of the treatment is to firm and tone the muscles, improve circulation and promote relaxation. It is recommended that a sensible high protein diet be followed during the course of treatments.

Stauffer is a world-wide organization having 211 salons in U.S.A., Mexico, Hawaii and Canada. There are three salons in Toronto, one in Vancouver and now one in Victoria.

Mrs. Jean Van Luven, a charming matron, recently of Vancouver and formerly of Toronto, is in charge of the slenderizing system on Vancouver Island. She will be assisted in her salon by Mrs. L. Dunnet and Mrs. A. Sinclair, trained technicians.

If you'd sooner do your slenderizing within the four walls of your own home, Mrs. Van

DIANE'S APPLESAUCE

FRUIT CAKE

Three cups sifted all-purpose flour, 2 teaspoons baking soda, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons cinnamon, 1 1/2 teaspoon cloves, 2 cups chopped nuts, 2 cups raisins, 1 cup chopped dates, 1/2 cup butter, 3/4 cup firmly packed brown sugar, 2 eggs (well-beaten), 2 cups thick applesauce.

Sift dry ingredients together. Remove 1 cup of flour combined with nuts. Cream shortening until light and fluffy. Add sugar and beat well. Add eggs, one at a time, and beat well after each addition. Add flour mixture alternately with applesauce.

Spoon in greased large loaf pan 9x5 inches. Bake in slow oven, 325 degrees F., for 40 to 60 minutes, or until done. Let stand until cool. Remove from pan. Cool on cake rack. Store. This keeps for at least 2 weeks. It's moist and well-flavored.

Mrs. Jean Van Luven, left, presided at tea table at opening of her salon yesterday. Mrs. T. M. Jones, centre, assisting as hostess, handles public relations for the salon. Times Fashion Editor, Nona Damaske, right, was at the opening to "see what it is all about."

Luven has a solution for that too. She's so full of ideas you'll find you are enthusiastic over her system before you've been in the salon an hour.

Official opening was yesterday when Mrs. Van Luven entertained at a late-day reception. Here for the occasion was Mrs. Van Luven's son, J. A. Van Luven, manager of the Vancouver Stock Exchange and his attractive wife. Also from Vancouver was Shields Widener, manager of the Vancouver salon. Milton Gaetz, regional distributor for the Stauffer laboratories and his wife Helen, who has two salons in Seattle were accompanied by the manager of one of the Seattle salons, Mrs. Stella Bong.

South Vancouver Island Institutes Name Officers

Mrs. E. G. Woodward, Brentwood, was elected president of the South Vancouver Island Women's Institute group at a recent gathering at Cobble Hill. Other officers are Mrs. O. W. Maxwell, Shirley, V.I., vice-president; Mrs. M. Cowan, Lake Hill, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. A. Davis, South Salt Spring and Mrs. J. F. Lauritzen, Craigflower, directors.

Retiring president, Mrs. E. H. Emery was named delegate to the first dominion conference in Ottawa next year.

More than 180 members and friends attended the meeting for which arrangements were convened by Mrs. G. B. Braithwaite, president of the Cobble Hill group. Mrs. A. Kennedy, Shawinigan Lake, welcomed members and Canon R. K. Sampson took the devotional period.

A life membership was presented to Mrs. Lydia Cross from fellow members of the Shirley Institute. Mrs. Emery and Mrs. Stella Gummow, provincial superintendent of women's institutes, officiated. Following the ceremony the names of 36 life members were read and those among them who were present were acknowledged by the gathering.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Gummow who stressed the need for institutes to broaden their interests locally, enlarge their vision, develop more pride in country — more flag waving. She urged that the integration of Indian women neighbors be a project for 1957.

Displays and demonstrations of work were given by Mrs. J. W. Black, Mrs. O. W. Maxwell, Mrs. R. Dunlop, Mrs. G. C. Cheeke and H. A. Hunt. The program also included numbers by Misses Sharon, Lynn and Donna Dougan and Louise Kennedy of Shawinigan Lake.

Members of Shawinigan and Koksilah Institutes, convened by Mrs. A. Kennedy and Mrs. L. Watt served morning coffee and afternoon tea and the Cobble Hill members were in charge of luncheon. Miss L. M. A. Savory donated her annual gift of flowers for decorations; Mrs. Braithwaite made the beribboned identification cards worn by members.

It was announced that Mrs. Gummow is in charge of arrangements for the 33-member Canadian delegation which will attend the biennial conference of the Associated Countrywomen of the World, in Ceylon in December. Plans were made for the 1957 conference of the South Vancouver Island group in Victoria with Strawberry Vale Institute assisting the Victoria Institute.

At the evening carnival which concluded the festival in St. Mary's Hall, Herbert Brown, rector's warden, paid tribute to Archdeacon A. E. deL. Nunns who is marking his 32nd year as rector of the church. Several organizations of the parish presented Archdeacon and Mrs. Nunns with a nest of tables to mark the occasion. From the left, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. R. A. Wootton, holding a special anniversary cake for the Archdeacon. Mrs. J. H. Hamilton is at the right.

MANNED SPACE SATELLITES

Cargo-carrying rockets at left designed to lift material for an inhabited earth satellite are shown in a sketch at the Seventh International Astronautical Congress in Rome, Italy. Such space craft are envisioned as the next project after the first instrument-bearing earth satellite is launched in the months ahead. News-map, below, locates Cape Canaveral, Fla., where preliminary tests of rocket units to hurl the initial satellite spacecraft will get under way this November.

B.C. Leaders Use 'Mercenaries' In Legislature, Laing Charges

VANCOUVER (CP)—Arthur Laing, leader of the British Columbia Liberal party and one of two Liberal members of the Legislature defeated in the Sept. 19 provincial election, said Tuesday this province is "experiencing a rightist, conservative revolution."

"There is enough money around for it to have quite a fling before it dies," he told a women's Liberal organization in his first major speech since his defeat.

Only two of the four Liberal members were returned in the election. "We have 22 per cent of the vote but less than four per cent of the Legislature seats," he said.

Mr. Laing said there is a lack in active politics of leaders of industry, intellectuals, trade union officials, doctors and other prominent people. He said these men use "mercenary soldiers" to represent them.

"This game calls for an executive council (cabinet) of overwhelming power, supported by a parliamentary majority composed of nonentities."

"It is the antithesis of self-government. It is a decision to buy security in four-year stretches, to stand erect behind a series of crumbling thrones."

Ford Tri-Motor to Retrace First New York-Seattle Flight

WASHINGTON (AP)—Northwest Orient Airlines said Tuesday it will fly one of its original passenger planes — almost three decades old — along its transcontinental route this month.

The Ford tri-motor flight will be a part of Northwest's observance of its 30th anniversary.

The airline said the 14-passenger, 100-mile-an-hour plane was one of several operated on its routes between Chicago, Minneapolis-St. Paul and the Pacific coast from 1923 to 1934.

Two veteran Northwest captains will fly the plane from New York City to Washington Oct. 9 to take on special "slow" air mail for the West.

The flight will end in Seattle Oct. 13 after several exhibition stops.

Bishop to Address AYPVA Conference

Several of Victoria's Anglican young people will attend the 26th annual provincial AYPVA conference in Vancouver over the Thanksgiving weekend.

"Myself, My Parish, My World," will be the theme of the conference to be held at St. John's (Shaughnessy) Church. Theme address emphasizing the role of young people in the church's three-year plan of intensified evangelism will be given by Rev. T. Allen of Prince George.

The three-day conference also will be addressed by the Rt. Rev. H. Watts, Bishop of Caledonia, and Rev. H. B. Barrett, recently returned from England and Europe.

BANQUET, DANCE

The conference will open with a banquet and dance Saturday evening and continues Sunday with holy communion at 8 a.m., celebrated by the Rt. Rev. G. P. Gower, Bishop of New Westminster.

Preacher at Sunday evening will be the Rev. Professor T. Kingston of the Anglican Theological College and chaplain of the New Westminster Diocesan AYPVA.

Holy communion will begin Monday's timetable at 8 a.m. At the closing business session that afternoon Neil Robinson, provincial president, will turn the duties of the provincial council over to newly-elected officers.

Attending from Christ Church Cathedral here will be Clyde Wright, Claire Stevenson, John Lancaster, Ruth Lang, Don Smith and Vanessa Wright.

Rev. John C. McDonald, curate of St. John's Anglican Church, will head another group of young people, including Joan Genge, Beverly Allen, Peter Robin, Sheila Martin and Peggy Melville.

School Advisory Board Failure UBCM Official Tells Civic Chiefs

PENTICTON (CP)—The executive director of the Union of B.C. Municipalities today attacked the effectiveness of the provincial school curriculum advisory board.

T. R. B. Adams, UBCM member on the advisory body, told the union's 53rd annual convention that the board "has little real influence with the department of education."

"I find it difficult," he said, "to recall any major work which the board has accomplished during the past year which could be considered as a recommendation to the department, or which in any way could have any influence on the department."

"The advisory board has had the opportunity of listening to some of the most outstanding educators in this province," he added.

Mr. Adams explained that the 24-member board was set up two years ago to act in an advisory capacity to the department of education.

Recounts Loom In 3 Ridings

VANCOUVER (CP)—With some results still to come, final vote counts have left British Columbia party standings unchanged since the September 19 election.

Recounts may be asked for in three ridings. Final returns have not been received from Atlin, where W. J. Asselstine, Social Credit, led Frank Calder, CCF, 375 to 185, with 12 out of 17 polls counted.

Closest win came in Grand Forks-Greenwood, where Mrs. Lois Haggan, CCF candidate, came out 15 votes ahead of her Social Credit runner-up, H. Crae Dawson. A recount may be requested.

In Skeena, Hugh A. Shirriff, Social Credit, scored a 62-vote win over Frank Howard, of the CCF.

In the two-member riding of Vancouver East, a recheck of ballots began today at the request of Harold E. Thayer, CCF. On Tuesday's count, he came out 210 votes behind Social Crediter Fred Sharp.

UBCM president George E. Hills, the mayor of Prince Rupert, told the 350 delegates they should exercise "strictest vigilance" against possible inroads on municipal rights by the two senior governments.

"It is becoming more and more obvious that federal municipal aid must be forthcoming in the near future," he said. Mayor Hills said increased provincial grants will also be needed, particularly in the fields of municipal education and public works.

He urged the UBCM during the "next few years at least" to concern itself principally with the financial aspects of municipal services.

U.K. Favors Free Trade for Europe

LONDON (AP)—Chancellor of exchequer Harold Macmillan said today Britain is thinking of joining 11 other European nations in "a partial free trade area" in which tariffs would be scaled down and eventually abolished.

Poznan Trials Said Harmful To Red Power

LONDON (UP)—Communist Poland is torn by internal difficulties that could erupt into new riots, diplomatic reports from behind the Iron Curtain said today.

The high sources said the Warsaw regime had drawn a stern rebuke from the Kremlin for a "sloppy" handling of the Poznan riot trials.

News dispatches from Poland indicated the trials have not followed the usual pattern of the Communist "show trials." Defendants have recanted confessions and countered with charges of police brutality.

Iron Curtain sources said Russia criticized conduct of the trials on the ground that they are undermining Communist discipline and control in the satellite states.

DENOUNCED POLICE

Three men on trial at Poznan on charges of murdering a security guard electrified the court with open denunciation of police methods. The prosecutor himself refused to ask for the death penalty and announced an investigation of police brutality was being made.

The reliable Paris newspaper Le Monde Tuesday reported Polish Premier Josef Cyrankiewicz and Marshal Konstantin Rokossovsky, the Red Army veteran who is Poland's defence minister, are feuding over the progress of the "destalinization program" in the Soviet satellite.

Cyrankiewicz was said to favour a speed-up of the liberalization program while Rokossovsky wants to keep the brakes on.

Transport Chief Is New Head Of Grain Board

OTTAWA (BUP)—Roy W. Milner, federal transport controller since 1951, will become chief commissioner of the board of grain commissioners Dec. 10.

Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent said today.

He will succeed D. G. McKenzie on the three-man board with headquarters in Winnipeg.

The prime minister also announced, following a two-hour cabinet meeting, that George Newton McConnell, Winnipeg, will join the board as a commissioner Dec. 10.

Mr. St. Laurent confirmed recent reports that W. E. Duffett, director of the economics and research branch of the labor department, will succeed Herbert Marshall as dominion statistician. The changeover will take place Jan. 1.

Milner took over the transport controller's job five years ago to break a bottleneck which then threatened to hold up delivery of the 1951 bumper wheat crop. He came under fire this year from CCF MPs at meetings of the Commons' agriculture committee but Trade Minister C. D. Howe lauded the job he had done in the face of difficulties with the rail companies in getting speedier and bigger allocations of box cars.

Suez, Algeria Policies Under Fire

By HAROLD KING
PARIS, France (Reuters)—Andre le Troquer, 71-year-old one-armed socialist, received Communist support to be re-elected speaker of the French National Assembly when it met Tuesday after a two-month recess.

The Communists backed le Troquer on the decisive second ballot, but not before they fired opening attacks at the Suez and Algerian policies of the government of Socialist Premier Guy Mollet.

The backing of Troquer followed a weekend appeal by Communist leader Maurice Thorez for "united action" by French Communists and Socialists.

It was Communist backing which gained le Troquer election in a third ballot when the new assembly first met last January, before the Mollet government took office.

ATTACKS SUEZ POLICY
Tuesday le Troquer received 301 votes—more than the required absolute majority—against 211 cast for former speaker Pierre Schneiter, a Popular Republican (Catholic).

The big debates of the new session—on Suez, Algeria, and economic problems—are not expected to begin until after the Radical party congress in Lyon Oct. 11-14. Opening the session Tuesday, le Troquer, strength of 195,000 to 215,000 in traditionally took the chair as eldest deputy—he is 87—called for a "policy of peace in Algeria" and said immediate negotiations were possible. He also attacked the government's Suez policy.

COMPANY'S COMING—Virginia Boden, 18 months old, strolls the deserted streets of Solomon Rapids, Kan., waiting for a playmate to arrive. She's the only child in the five-person community, which owes its existence to a grain elevator. Virginia's parents have told her that there's a playmate for her on the way. (NEA Photo.)

$90,000 Fire Razes Chilliwack Building

(FROM CP DISPATCHES)
CHILLIWACK — A fire, believed to have started in the furnace destroyed a building supply store early today.

Firemen from the municipal and city brigades battled the blaze for 3½ hours. At times flames were visible at Abbotsford, 20 miles away.

Owner Peter Dueck said it was too early to give an accurate estimate of the loss. He said $65,000 worth of stock, along with three new trucks, a semi-trailer and loader valued at more than $25,000, were lost in the fire, one of the worst in recent Chilliwack history.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL

VANCOUVER — David Auld, 24, was committed for trial on a charge of possession of drugs when he appeared in police court Tuesday.

Ball was set at $1,000. Police testified they found a capsule containing traces of white powder when they stopped his car Aug. 26.

FORMER GRAIN HEAD DIES

WEST VANCOUVER — Funeral services were held today for Kenneth Carleton Allen, director of several Vancouver companies, who died Monday at the age of 72.

Mr. Allen was managing director of Alberta Pacific Grain Co. for 15 years and continued as a director after his retirement in 1951. He was also a director of Vancouver Breweries Ltd. and Union Steamships Ltd.

MURDER CHARGES

ENDERBY — Two Shuswap Indians were charged Tuesday with the murder of another Indian during the weekend on the nearby Enderby Indian reserve.

Thomas Dennis and Isaac Charlie, both in their 20s, were remanded without plea by Magistrate P. G. Farmer until Oct. 10. They were held in RCMP custody.

Louis Maxine, 26-year-old Enderby Reserve Indian, was found dead Sunday morning on the reserve. RCMP at Kam-loops said he had been beaten about the head, probably with a hammer.

JURY GIVEN WARNING

KAMLOOPS — A murder trial jury received a stern warning from Mr. Justice J. O. Wilson in Assize Court here Tuesday.

He said he will deal severely with any "flagrant breach of the laws governing the conduct of juries."

Two weeks ago he sentenced Kamloops hockey player Don Slater to five days' imprisonment for leaving the room where jury members had been billeted during the trial of two Merritt youths charged with murder. He also called for a new jury.

Mr. Justice Wilson is presiding over the trial of Gordon Cisco, 17, and Harold William Eusta, 20, both charged with the April 23 slaying of Johnny Sampson.

ELDERLY MAN BEATEN
MERRITT — RCMP here are searching for three men who assaulted an elderly Chinese outside the town Tuesday.

Vegetable-grower Eng Gow, 75, was beaten by three strangers when he refused to cash a cheque in payment for vegetables.

THUGS STEAL WATCH

VANCOUVER — Thugs wielding a knife robbed a man of his watch in a lane here Tuesday before fleeing.

Charles Hovey told police the men forced him into an alley at knife-point. The assault was witnessed by two passing pedestrians who ran to Hovey's assistance.

MOTORIST CHARGED

VANCOUVER — A 33-year-old salesman who allegedly failed to remain at the scene of an accident surrendered to city police Tuesday.

An elderly woman was injured at a city intersection Monday night. Police have charged Richard Owen Griffiths with failing to remain at the scene of an accident and failing to yield the right of way to a pedestrian.

The injured woman, Mrs. Olive Walsh, 58, was carried into St. Paul's Hospital by the driver of the car that struck her, and his companion.

CABARETS UNDER FIRE

VANCOUVER — A Vancouver alderman says strict enforcement of a 3 a.m. closing for cabarets here would put an end to the era of "drawn blinds, buzzers on doors and spies."

Ald. Bill Orr was commenting on an application to city council by Chinatown cabaret operators for a one-hour extension of dancing to 3 a.m.

CARELESS FLYING LAID TO ACTOR

VAN NUYS, Calif. (AP)—Actor Steve Cochran faces a court arraignment Friday on a charge of careless flying.

The complaint was filed after two Los Angeles police helicopter patrol officers said they saw the actor dive his light plane to about 100 feet over his Beverly Hills home.

*because of this news
millions of cats will be healthier, happier!*

Puss'n Boots now contains extra Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> (thiamin)

Now—see what extra Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> does for your cat—

Puss'n Boots Cat Food, made from fresh-caught whole fish (not from scraps or by-products), contains nature's own ideal balance of life-giving nutrients. The chart shows how the proteins, the vitamins, the minerals and other vital elements are retained in nature's balance. And for all-round nutrition, seven scientifically selected cereals are added.

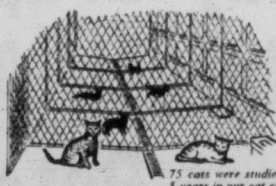

If you have been feeding Puss'n Boots, you know how your cat thrives on it. Now, with extra Vitamin B<sub>1</sub>, you'll see an additional beneficial effect, especially if your cat is one of those requiring vitamin supplementation.

Pick up a week's supply of new Puss'n Boots, with extra Vitamin B<sub>1</sub>, and see what it does for your cat! You'll enjoy an altogether more lovable pet... more playful, more beautiful. Food stores and pet shops everywhere have Puss'n Boots, in two handy sizes.

A great scientific advance in pet nutrition... A serious problem solved for your cat.

You know from health lessons learned in your school days how important Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> is to your own well-being. But did you know that it's just as important for your cat to have an adequate daily supply of this essential "nerve vitamin"?

Because it is so important, Puss'n Boots Cat Food now contains an extra supply of Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> in every can... purposely added in scientifically measured quantities, as the result of Puss'n Boots' continuing study of cat nutrition.

What we Learned about Your Cat

More than five years ago we established a colony of 75 cats in model quarters. We fed them fresh food, canned food, every kind of food you are ever likely to feed your cat. Our veterinarian and nutritional specialists patiently observed the cats and their kittens, day after day, year after year, and kept detailed records of their diets and their physical condition.

From this study one crystal-clear conclusion emerged: A most important problem in feeding your cat is to make sure that it gets the adequate daily supply of Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> which it needs.

Does your Cat get Enough Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> Now?

Some cats need a larger supply of Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> than others. Such cats (like many humans) need supplementary B<sub>1</sub>. Unless they receive it they will lose appetite, weight and energy. They will be irritable instead of happily playful, dull looking instead of sleekly beautiful. So Puss'n Boots, already rich in vitamins and minerals, now contains added Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> for two reasons:

1. To provide the supplementary Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> that some cats need.
2. To provide "Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> insurance" as a margin of safety for all cats.

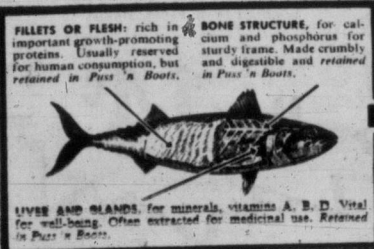

A Technical Triumph

It wasn't easy to add Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> to Puss'n Boots and keep it stable. Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> is sensitive to heat. It may be lost in cooking. And Puss'n Boots is cooked in the can, to make sure it reaches you an absolutely pure, ready-to-eat cat food. But after much technical research and many experiments, we solved the problem. The vitamin is kept stable throughout the cooking.

Today, when you open a can of Puss'n Boots, you can be sure the added Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> is there, with all the health-giving benefits that mean so much to your cat's welfare.

PUSS'n BOOTS

MADE FROM FRESH WHOLE FISH!

FILETS OF FISH: rich in BONE STRUCTURE, for calcium and phosphorus for sturdy frame. Made crumbly and digestible and retained in Puss'n Boots.

LIVER AND BLANDS: for minerals, vitamins A, B, D. Vital for well-being. Often extracted for medicinal use. Retained in Puss'n Boots.

VITAMIN B<sub>1</sub> (Thiamin)

CLUB OFFICIALS IN SHUTTLE HUDDLE

Tennis racquets are being put in their presses and being tucked away at Victoria Lawn Tennis and Badminton Club, and the more delicate badminton racquets are being taken out of the closet for the winter season. Discussing plans for a busy and entertaining

Vernon No Patsies Cougars Know Well

BY Bill Walker

The seasons change, one fusing into the other in a kaleidoscope of color—and the imprint on the wonderful world of sport-blends a pattern all its own.

While the New York Yankees today battle the Brooklyn Dodgers for the championship of all baseball, coach Colin Kilburn and his Victoria Cougars shake out the kinks of summer idleness as they prep for a six-month tour of western ice lanes.

And as they now sit idly by in the evenings, the Nanaimo Timbermen must be revelling in the wine of victory that so rightfully is theirs. Champion of the boxla world, they are, the title coming to the Island for the second straight year.

This islet of ours then must rank as the new home of lacrosse and the advice is that Victoria Shamrocks intend to keep it that way next year.

The Bombers Spell 'Class'

But today it has to be the Yankees in the "world series." From an old Yankee fan in this corner, I'll get you a like amount that the Bombers will prevail over the Bums. At least until the fives run out. (Oop! it just did.)

You know, there's something about the Yankees that spells class.

Perhaps it's the vast expanse of Yankee Stadium, the monument to the Yankee greats in centre field, the empty lockers of Ruth and Gehrig in the dressing room, or their neat pin-striped grey suits.

They have the walk of champions, the manner of the proud and haughty name that is theirs; and more often than not they live up to that name.

The Final 'March Past'

But the Dodgers are a proud lot, too. It wasn't many days ago that the wire copy flooded the newsmen that the "old men" of Brooklyn were really "old." But now with the impetus of a glittering stretch run to the championship in the most exciting National League race in years behind them, for most of the Dodgers it's the final march past in baseball's "run-to-the-roses."

Don't ever count 'em out, the Bums from the Gowanus. The Milwaukee beer was only half as famous as were the Braves just a week ago. Now even the suds have lost their tang. The Dodgers made it so.

McDougald—One of the Best

You may have noticed the piece, but if you didn't there was fine tribute to Gil McDougald in a national publication this week.

Gil, who was weaned in Victoria's own Athletic Park (actually a better piece of ground than the Yankee Stadium infield), is credited with being one of the most valuable players on the Bombers. It is said of Gil that with a fine career as a second baseman and third baseman behind him, he stepped into the Yankee shortstop berth as if he owned it. And Brooklyn pitchers probably know it as well—McDougald is generally credited with being one of the best fast-ball hitters in baseball today.

Yep, we like the Yanks over the Bums, Maglie et al; just as we think that Cougar coach Colin Kilburn will do better than alright as whipman for the Cougars this season.

But about the Cougars tomorrow—Whitey Ford of the Yankees has just let loose with his first pitch.

Drakes Fire French; Patrick Takes Over

Oak Bay Drakes, who strayed slightly off course in their last Victoria Intermediate Football League game, will have a new pilot at the helm for their next outing.

Drakes fired head coach Fred French Tuesday and replaced him with two Vancouverites, Jack Patrick and Cec Taylor.

Patrick and Taylor met the Drakes' team for the first time at Tuesday night's workout and following the session, Bob Scarsell, line coach under French, announced that he would submit his resignation to the club.

Under French, Drakes had a record of two victories and one loss, the one blot on their record.

FIGHT RESULTS

HOUSTON, Tex.—Roy Harris, 185, Con. Tex., outpointed Charlie Norkus, 194, Philadelphian, N.Y. (10).

PHILADELPHIA—Jimmy So, 128½, Philadelphia, outpointed Edgar Glover, 128½, New York (15).

DAVIS CUP DATES

MADRAS, India (AP)—India will play the United States in the inter-zone final of the Davis Cup at Perth, Australia, on Dec. 7, 8 and 9. The All-India Lawn Tennis Association announced Tuesday.

Victoria Cougars won't have things their own way Thursday and Friday nights when they kick off their exhibition series against Vernon Canadians.

The locals will meet the present Allan Cup champions at Nanaimo Thursday night and then make their home debut against the national titlists at Memorial Arena Friday.

Vernon is a solid experienced club with a wealth of experience, but probably not in such depth as the local Western Hockey League club.

For example, in coach George Agar they have a former WHL scoring champion, a 300-goal man in pro hockey and an all-star WHL centre a few seasons ago.

Others with a broad background in the game are Willie Schmidt, former defenceman with New Westminster; Odie Lowe, once coach of the Winnipeg Maroons; Frank King and Orval Lavell, both of whom were with Sudbury Wolves in the Allan Cup final series of 1954, and Walt Trentini, former Calgary Stampeder.

Kilburn is expected to give his newcomers as much work as possible; in that regard he has been particularly impressed with the work of Gordon Hawthorn and George Ranieri.

DOBBYN ON SHELF

Only serious casualty of the moment in the Cougar camp is defenceman Bill Dobbyn who is suffering a muscular ailment in the leg. However, it is expected that Dobbyn will be in the line-up Friday night.

Cougars open their regular WHL season against Vancouver Canucks on Monday afternoon at 2 p.m. at Memorial Arena.

Regals Sign Five Players

BRANDON (CP)—Brandon Regals of the Western Hockey League announced Tuesday the signing of five players for the 1956-57 season.

Frank Boucher, coach and general manager of the club, said the Regals had come to terms with Don Raleigh, assistant coach and forward, goaltender Lucien Dechene, defenceman Bill Bucyk and Murray Wilkie and forward Earl Johnson. Dechene, Bucyk and Wilkie were with the team last year.

Previously signed was Lyle Willey, rookie centreman, who played last season with the junior Flin Flon Bombers.

Dawes to Coach Kamloops Team

KAMLOOPS, B.C. (CP)—Kenny MacKenzie, owner of the Kamloops entry in the Okanagan Senior Hockey League, announced Tuesday the signing of Bob Dawes as playing coach.

This will be Dawes' second taste of Okanagan hockey. The six-foot-one-inch defenceman was a stand-out for Kelowna Packers in 1954-55 season before moving to New Westminster Royals of the Western Hockey League.

MacKenzie also announced signing of Jim Shirley as goaltender. Saskatchewan-born and a product of the Wesleys, Shirley starred last season for Saint John, N.B., winner of the Atlantic Coast Senior Hockey League.

Maple Leafs Trim Barons

TIMMINS, Ont. (CP)—Toronto Maple Leafs overpowered Cleveland Barons 6-1 Tuesday night in an exhibition hockey game.

Rookie Bob Pulford scored two goals for the National Hockey League Leafs. George Armstrong, Ron Stewart, Hugh Bolton and Sid Smith scored singles.

Steve Kraftcheck fired the lone goal for Cleveland in the American Hockey League.

OLYMPIC PLEDGE TO BE MODIFIED

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP)—The top officials of the international Olympic movement, meeting in an emergency session here tonight, are expected to modify at least temporarily the rigorous and controversial anti-professional pledge introduced in the new Olympic rules.

The executive committee of the International Olympic Committee, convened by IOC president Avery Brundage, may decide to suspend the amateur-intention phrase in the new pledge until after the Melbourne games, and so meet the widespread criticism of the pledge for the time being.

Canuck Beef Goes Up In Price

VANCOUVER (CP)—Surplus beef was priced at $5 a pound in the Vancouver Canuck training camp Tuesday.

Art Chapman, coach and manager of the Western Hockey League entry, set the price when he found that two defencemen, Carl Kaiser and Gordon Hudson, were overweight.

Chapman said he will weigh both defencemen each morning before practice. Should either fail to remove at least two pounds a day, they will be fined $5 for each extra pound they are carrying.

Hudson now weighs 224 pounds and, Chapman wants him down to 210 before their league opener at Victoria Monday. Kaiser weighed in at 216. His playing weight is 205.

HOCKEY STAR DIES

TROIS-RIVIERES, Que. (CP)—Fred Bechard, 70, considered one of the greatest hockey players ever produced in the Trois-Rivieres area, died Tuesday. Bechard, a stocky defenceman, was noted for his rink-long rushes and stick-handling ability.

Hockey Refs to Use Signalling System

MONTREAL (CP)—The National Hockey League has announced 14 designated signals are to be used by referees and linesmen, the first complete official set in the league's history.

The signals were prepared on instruction of the NHL governors and will be of special benefit to television audiences, particularly with the television this season of 10 games over the CBS network in the United States.

Bill Chadwick, who retired as an NHL referee a year ago, employed a system of signals which he devised himself early in his refereeing career. An official set to cover four rule infractions was adopted by the league in the 1946-47 season.

ARM MOTIONS USED

The new signals are: slow whistle—Either arm, in which whistle is held, extended above head; if play returns to neutral zone without stoppage, arm is drawn down the instant the puck crosses the line.

Tripping—Extending right leg forward, clear of the ice, and striking it with right hand below the knee.

Hooking—A series of tugging motions with both arms, as if pulling something toward the stomach.

Slashing—A series of chopping motions with the edge of one hand across the opposite forearm.

Cross-checking—A series of forward and backward motions with both fists clenched extending from the chest.

High-sticking—Holding both fists clenched, one immediately above the other, at the height of the forehead.

Charging—Holding clenched fists around one's chest in front of chest.

Interference—Crossed arms stationary in front of chest.

Johnson Greatest Says Kearns

... But Dempsey
Would Beat Louis

VANCOUVER (CP)—Jack Kearns, New York fight promoter and manager who has owned pieces of seven world champions, says Jack Johnson was the greatest of them all.

Here for the recent heavyweight fight between Argentine's Edgardo Romero and Kearns' boy Joey Maxim, former light-heavyweight titleholder—Maxim won it—the 75-year-old promoter replied with finality when asked to name the champion of champions.

"Thought I'd say Dempsey, didn't you?" he chuckled. "No. But he would've licked Louis. I think Jack Johnson. He had everything. Boy, how I could have made money with him."

He might have been expected to choose Jack Dempsey if for no other reason than that he and Jack cut up $19,000,000 with Kearns at the helm and the Mauler laying out assorted boxers before great crowds.

"For the Tunney fights we got more dough than you could shovel with two shovels in a year," said Kearns.

Another of his champions was Mickey Walker, with whom Kearns said he grossed nearly $6,000,000. "We spent it all," Mickey married six dames—spent a million on every dame."

The list also includes Benny Leonard. At present Kearns has some interest in Archie Moore contender for the heavyweight throne. Before coming to Vancouver he had been to New York, Chicago and Los Angeles seeking a suitable base for a Moore-Floyd Patterson title bout.

Of Dempsey, Kearns said he was "always a great killer," adding: "Always he could take you down in one crack."

Stengel, Alston Went With 'Best'

Yanks Series Favorite

By JOE REICHLER
BROOKLYN (AP)—Either out of force of habit or because of their past winning ways in this sort of competition, New York ruled a solid 8-to-5 favorite to defeat Brooklyn in the 1956 world series but was only a 6-to-5 choice to win today as the Yankees' Whitey Ford and the Dodgers' Sal Maglie squared off in the opener at Ebbets Field.

A crowd of about 34,000 jammed the ancient Flatbush ball park with Dwight D. Eisenhower, the first president to attend a World Series game in 20 years.

PITCHERS ODD CONTRAST

The pitting of Maglie against Ford was a strange contrast and not only because 39-year-old Sal is righthanded and 28-year-old Ford throws from the left side. Maglie, the oldest pitcher ever to open a World Series, had never won a post-season game, although he has started two. Ford had won three, two over the Dodgers, but in his only previous start at Ebbets Field, he lasted only one inning.

Maglie, the elder, was working with only three days' rest. Ford, the junior, had not pitched since he failed in his bid for victory number 20 last Wednesday.

Yankee manager Casey Stengel's explanation for nominating Ford over his three starting righthanders in a park considered a southpaw's graveyard, was simple:

"Ford is my best pitcher," he said, "and I can't afford to hold him out until the third game."

Dodger manager Walter Alston's reason for going with Maglie in preference to his younger starters was equally as simple.

"Sal has been the club's best pitcher over the past two months," he said. "He's won our clutch games and there is no one I'd like better to pitch such an important game as this one."

Benefit Coho Derbies On Anglers' Agenda

A rich treasure chest of prizes await Vancouver Island anglers who master the wily coho salmon.

Two big fishing derbies are in the immediate offing and they are restricted to the silver-sided, nasty-tempered coho.

Locally, the Victoria-Saanich Inlet Anglers Association, together with Dowell's Carriage and Victoria Tire Ltd., will sponsor the annual Cerebral Palsy Coho Derby in Saanich Inlet Oct. 13 and 14. Tickets are on sale for the derby and officials are hoping to turn over more than $2,500 proceeds to the local Cerebral Palsy chapter.

For the angler weighing in the biggest coho of the two-day derby, will go the first prize of a complete camping outfit, consisting of a tent, two sleeping bags and ground sheets, a portable cooler, Coleman camp stove and camp light.

THREE-DAY EVENT
This weekend, the Cowichan Bay Salmon Club stages its annual three-day coho derby, a popular event with Island anglers.

Proceeds from the weekend fishfest will be divided between the Queen Alexandra Solarium and the salmon club itself.

Daily cash prizes of $100 each will be awarded for the biggest fish caught Saturday, Sunday and Monday. There will be two hidden weight prizes each day and 39 additional merchandise prizes.

Fishing runs from dawn to 4:30 p.m. daily and the Government Wharf will be the official weigh-in station.

For non-fishermen, the derby offers as consolation prize the choice between a 10-foot boat and outboard motor, automatic clothes dryer or a fur coat.

The Anchor Cafe Trophy goes to the angler taking the biggest fish of the three days.

All herring and live bait will be prohibited and only artificial lures may be used.

Howard Scores Non-Title Victory

HALIFAX (CP)—Richard (Kid) Howard, Canadian lightweight champion, scored a unanimous decision over Irish Glen Flanagan of St. Paul, Minn., Tuesday night in a 10-round non-title bout.

It was Howard's last fight in Canada before leaving for Johannesburg, South Africa, where he meets Vic Towel for the British Empire lightweight title, next month.

INTERLOCKING SCHEDULE SET

Basketball's New Deal

Preliminary steps were taken over the weekend to give basketball in Victoria a new deal.

A large delegation from the Saanich and Suburban Basketball League and smaller representations from the Victoria and District Basketball Association, the Church League and the Victoria Referee's Association met Sunday night with delegates of the Canadian Basketball Association, the B.C. Basketball Association and the Vancouver and District Basketball Association.

Joe Polley, president of the Canadian Association, said his group was interested in seeing Victoria once again assume the place in basketball it once held, and that he would do everything possible to aid the revival of the game in Victoria.

Basil Sands, BCBA vice-president, and Norm Gloag, Vancouver commission member, echoed Polley's words and pledged their full support.

It was decided at the meeting that all leagues in the district would benefit from an interlocking schedule and the city loop and the suburban circuit agreed to the plan to provide more varied and keener competition in all divisions.

On Monday night, the Victoria commission met and set Oct. 22 as deadline for entries. Oct. 22 has been set as the tentative opening date for league play.

During the season, local teams will play games with teams sent over from the Vancouver leagues.

BOSOX SIGN HARRIS TO ADVISORY POST

BROOKLYN, N.Y. (UP)—The Boston Red Sox today signed Bucky Harris, recently resigned manager of the Detroit Tigers, as a special front office assistant to work on special assignments.

Harris will assist president Tom Yawkey, general manager Joe Cronin and field manager Mike Higgins.

The Red Sox said that the 57-year-old Harris' assignments would include special scouting jobs and added that "he will be used in an important advisory capacity in many situations."

WINNIPEG

WINNIPEG (CP) — Prices generally fell from today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as commercial demand showed some improvement, especially in flax where exporters, shippers and United States houses were buyers.

Hedging sales were also fairly liberal in flax but were well taken. Trade reports indicated small sales of flax abroad.

Trading was less active in other grains. Domestic shippers picked up oats. Barley attracted exporter and shipper buying, with trade reports of small parcel lots going to the United Kingdom. Rye was irregular, dropping off under early selling, then recovering late in the trade when sellers turned buyers.

There was no information on overnight export wheat loadings.

Lakehead prices for class two, WA and domestic wheat were down one-quarter cent from Tuesday.

Safe Blowing May Have Caused Fire

CHILLIWACK, B.C. (CP)—RCMP said they are "not ruling out the possibility" that a fire in a building supply store here today was started by an attempted safe blowing. Police recovered the safe of Dueck Building Supplies and found a hole punched in its side. The contents are being checked. (See Page 9.)

Bobo Olson Announces Retirement

PORTLAND, Ore. (BUP)—Carl "Bobo" Olson, former world middleweight boxing champion, today announced he would retire from the ring. Olson had been scheduled to fight Sammy Walker in a 10-rounder in Portland, Thursday night. Sid Flaherty, Olson's manager, said the retirement was decided upon after Olson did not perform well in workouts this week.

Double-Voting Found in Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP)—Returning officer James W. Wardrop of Vancouver-Burrard riding alleged today that one person voted twice in the provincial election. He said he is satisfied the case is a "clear-cut" offence under the 1953 elections act but has not decided how to proceed in prosecuting the alleged offender.

Oil Price-Fixing Plot Charged

VANCOUVER (CP)—McColl-Fontenay Oil Co. Ltd., one of its agents and one of its service station operators were charged today with conspiracy to fix prices. W. D. Henderson, president of Henderson Petroleum Ltd., in suburban Burnaby, swore out the charges and RCMP said summonses will be issued ordering the defendants to appear in court Oct. 18. The charge accuses the three with conspiracy designed to lessen or eliminate competition.

Kitimat Electric Workers' Strike Ends

KITIMAT, B.C. (CP)—A strike of 200 electricians employed by Canadian Comstock Co. on construction of a new aluminum potline here ended today. About 170 members of Local 344 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers decided at a meeting Tuesday night to accept the recommendations of a strike committee and return to work.

Child of 8 Drowned by Playmate

COLTON, Calif. (BUP)—George Bryant, eight-year-old polo victim, was found drowned today in a California hobo jungle and sheriff's deputies said a young playmate had confessed to the slaying. The victim had been reported missing Tuesday after playing hooky to go swimming in Warm Creek, near the jungle. His body was found when a trainman at a nearby railroad yard told deputies a boy told him his playmate "must have drowned." The boy later admitted his guilt.

Suez Convoy Delayed by Grounding

PORT SAID, Egypt (AP)—An 18-ship convoy headed out of Port Said southbound through the Suez Canal more than two hours late today. The delay was due to Tuesday's brief grounding of the British freighter Hendrik and the fact that the midnight northbound convoy was late getting into the Mediterranean.

Cypriots Starve To Buck Curfew

NICOSIA, Cyprus (CP)—Greek-Cypriot officials charged today that several thousand people face starvation in a five-day-old curfew ordered by British authorities as reports circulated that many others are going on a hunger strike. The curfew, confining 15,000 persons to their houses in the Greek quarter of Nicosia, was lifted for two hours today to permit people to buy food in street markets.

A whisper went round the old city from roof to roof: "We are boycotting the food." One vegetable seller said: "We have sold hardly anything today—I should say even less than one-tenth of yesterday's sales have been registered."

The boycott is believed partly due to a general cash shortage—especially among wage-earning workers—and also in protest against the continuance of the curfew. A trade union official said several thousand in the curfew area, deprived of their work, have no money left.

British authorities today reported the arrest of three Greek Cypriots and said they were suspected of planning to bomb a police station.

CRUSHED TO DEATH

Building Falls, Traps Workers

JACKSON, Mich. (AP)—A three-storey office building under construction tumbled to the ground today and police inspector John O'Connor said at least 10 workmen were killed. Thirteen men were taken to hospitals. An undetermined number of others were believed still trapped.

U.K. Troops Arrested On Cyprus

LONDON (Reuters)—The War Office announced today that 21 junior non-commissioned officers and men of the British army are under close arrest as the result of an "incident" on Monday night on Cyprus. The war office said the arrests followed "a noisy and undisciplined" disturbance.

The announcement said the disturbance took place two days ago in a Royal Army Service Corps unit. Reports have been widespread in recent weeks that reservists called back into service because of the Suez crisis are bored and discontented. War Minister Anthony Head last week denied that any serious trouble or "near mutiny" existed.

UBCM Official Scores School Advisory Board

PENTICTON (CP)—The executive director of the Union of B.C. Municipalities today attacked the effectiveness of the provincial school curriculum advisory board.

T. R. B. Adams, UBCM member on the advisory body, told the union's 53rd annual convention that the board "has little real influence with the department of education."

"I find it difficult," he said, "to recall any major work which the board has accomplished during the past year which could be considered as a recommendation to the department, or which in any way could have any influence on the department."

"The advisory board has had the opportunity of listening to some of the most outstanding educators in this province," he added.

Mr. Adams explained that the 24-member board was set up two years ago to act in an advisory capacity to the department of education.

UBCM president George E. Hills, the mayor of Prince Rupert, told the 350 delegates they should exercise "strictest vigilance" against possible inroads on municipal rights by the two senior governments.

"It is becoming more and more obvious that federal municipal aid must be forthcoming in the near future," he said.

Mayor Hills said increased provincial grants will also be needed, particularly in the fields of municipal education and public works.

O'Connor said authorities had not been able to gain an accurate count of the number of men in the building when it collapsed.

O'Connor said doctors called to the Consumers Power Co. structure amputated limbs of some of the buried workmen so that they could be removed alive.

The entire southeast section of the building collapsed as workmen were pouring concrete on the third floor. Steel beams and concrete blocks smashed in a cloud of dust to the basement where a number of electricians were working.

The men were buried under concrete blocks, bricks and twisted steel as two complete floors suddenly collapsed.

Hundreds of rescue workers pushing through the rubble appealed for expert welders and metal cutters to help break through heavy steel beams that barred the way.

Only one wall of the building remained standing.

Vote Recounts Loom in Three B.C. Ridings

VANCOUVER (CP)—With some results still to come, final vote counts have left British Columbia party standings unchanged since the September 18 election.

Recounts may be asked for in three ridings. Final returns have not been received from Atlin, where W. J. Asselstine, Social Credit, led Frank Calder, CCF, 375 to 185, with 12 out of 17 polls counted.

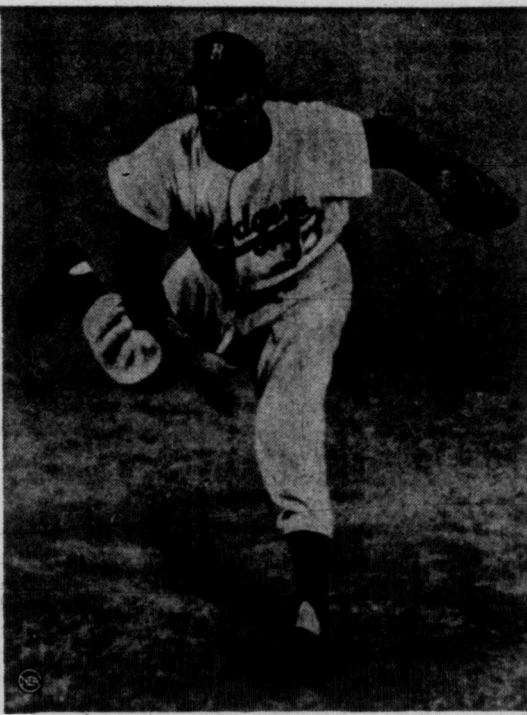

Closest win came in Grand Forks-Greenwood, where Mrs. Lois Haggan, CCF candidate, came out 15 votes ahead of her Social Credit runner-up, H. Crae Dawson. A recount may be requested.

In Skeena, Hugh A. Shirriff, Social Credit, scored a 62-vote win over Frank Howard, of the CCF.

$100,000 Ball Park Fire

CHICAGO (AP)—Fire of undetermined origin swept through the press box and a section of second deck stands at Comiskey Park Tuesday. A spokesman for the White Sox placed the damage estimate at $100,000.

Decisive 6-3 Victory Over Yanks Surprises

By MILTON RICHMAN

BROOKLYN (UP)—"It was our easiest win in a month!" That was the unanimous sentiment of the unbelieving Dodgers, who pinched themselves to make sure their 6-3 victory over the New York Yankees was real.

"Watta laughter!" said Duke Snider, employing the expression ball players always use to denote a triumph that comes easy.

"Why it was just like a routine ball game," chimed in Jackie Robinson. "With Allie Reynolds gone, those Yankees don't seem to be so tough any more."

Even Sal Maglie, who looked beat at the end, admitted that the going for him wasn't especially tough after the Yankees mustered their final threat in the fifth inning. Two men were on base at the time, Yogi Berra was up and manager Walt Alston came out to talk with Maglie.

"The skipper told me it looked like I wasn't throwing as hard as I had been at the beginning," Sal said. "I told Walt that my arm was a little tight, but I said I'd like to pitch to Yogi. He said, 'Okay, if you think you're all right that's good enough for me.'"

The 39-year-old Maglie then got Berra and Moose Skowron mustered their final threat in the fifth inning. Two men were stood around shaking his head as if he still couldn't believe that the Dodgers had taken the Bronx Bombers in such matter-of-fact fashion. "After those first three innings," said Pee Wee Reese, "there was no sweat. That doesn't mean, of course, that we have this series sewed up. But I'll tell you this much, there's no substitute for winning the first one. And the way we did it ought to make the Yankees do some thinking, too."

Off in another corner of the room, veteran Pee Wee Reese

Yankees Pay Tribute To Maglie's Hurling

By WILL GRIMSLEY
BROOKLYN (AP)—The proud and vainglorious Yankees paid tribute to Brooklyn's 39-year-old Cinderella man, Sal Maglie, Wednesday but blamed their 6-3 defeat in the opening game of the world series on their own impotent attack.

"That fellow Maglie was just the better pitcher," that's all," said crusty Casey Stengel, sitting in the dressing room among his grim-jawed athletes. "Our fellow Whitey Ford wasn't very hot. But that's no excuse for us. We had their man in."

Members of the Yankees said Maglie confused them with his deft change-of-pace and collection of curves and sliders.

Ford, pulled out for a pinch-hitter after giving up six hits and five runs in three innings, dressed quickly and left the dressing room before the game ended.

"I have no excuses," he said. "I just couldn't do it."

Hodges Home Run Proved Big Blow

BROOKLYN (UP)—Swarthy Sal (The Barber) Maglie pitched with his heart, his head and a weary arm today to defeat the mighty New York Yankees 6-3 in the opening game of the world series.

Maglie was assisted by a three-run cushion from the home-run bat of Gil Hodges.

The 39-year-old Maglie was regarded as a "washed-up has-been" last spring. He thrilled a crowd of 34,479 which included President Eisenhower, and the Duke of Windsor, as he yielded two home runs, but continually pitched his way out of other heart-stopping Yankee threats to complete a dramatic victory.

The scowling Barber, staggering on the verge of a knock-out at least three times, yielded a two-run homer to Mickey Mantle and one to scrappy Billy Martin. But his underdog team-mates came through with a pair themselves, one by Jackie Robinson and the three-run blast by Hodges. The veteran right-hander took it from there on.

The unsmiting Maglie gave up nine big hits to booming

Yankee bats, but he also fanned 10 menacing Bronx Bombers—three more than he ever had in a regular-season game. His mates quickly proved once again that Ebbets Field is a "southpaw's graveyard" by pounding little Whitey Ford into defeat after a three-inning stint in which he gave up six of the nine Brooklyn hits and five of the six runs.

The Yankees bounced into a quick two-run lead in the first inning. It came on Mantle's booming shot over the right field wall with Country Slaughter on first. The predominantly Brooklyn crowd had been comparatively silent until Robinson led off the bottom of the second with his homer into the lower left field stands. The cascade of sound continued as Hodges—the goat of the 1952 series when he went

Tory MP Drive for Diefenbaker May Swing Heels on to Bandwagon

By ALAN DONNELLY
Canadian Press Staff Writer
OTTAWA (CP) — A Diefenbaker-for-leader movement, born in the ranks of Progressive Conservative Commons members, has come into the open on the heels of the announcement that a party leadership convention will be held in Ottawa in the week of Dec. 10.

Gordon Churchill, Winnipeg MP, issued a statement Tuesday night that a 15-member committee of MPs has started work to "draft" John Diefenbaker, 61-year-old Saskatchewan lawyer.

Mr. Diefenbaker, who seems certain to run for the leadership although he hasn't yet said so, commented that he was deeply grateful "for this show of confidence."

The place and time of a convention to choose a successor to Hon. George Drew and write a Conservative election platform was decided Tuesday at a day-long (closed meeting of the executive of the party's national association.

Association president Leon Balcer of Trois-Rivières, Que., predicted that more than 1,400 will attend the convention.

As the executive met, behind-the-scenes maneuvering reached a faster tempo in the leadership field, in which no one has yet declared himself.

There was a strong indication that George Hees, 46-year-old member for Toronto Broadview, may drop his leadership hopes and swing in support of Mr. Diefenbaker, the party's external affairs spokesman, who failed in two previous leadership bids.

If he does, that may move Donald Fleming, party stalwart from Toronto Eglinton, into Diefenbaker's second spot in the leadership fight. Another possible contestant is David Fulton, member for Kamloops, B.C.

Those close to Mr. Hees said his hope, if he decides to support Mr. Diefenbaker, would be to become deputy party leader with a view to winning the leadership when the post next opens.

(Mr. Hees Tuesday started a barnstorming tour of Western Canada. His itinerary does not include a Victoria visit.)

Tuesday night's statement by Mr. Churchill said his committee does not include Mr. Fleming, Mr. Fulton or Mr. Hees.

The statement said a campaign to draft Mr. Diefenbaker began this week "and reliable reports indicate a very high percentage of Conservative MPs are prepared to support Mr. Diefenbaker."

B.C. Leaders Use 'Mercenaries' In Legislature, Laying Charges

VANCOUVER (CP) — Arthur Laing, leader of the British Columbia Liberal party and one of two Liberal members of the Legislature defeated in the Sept. 19 provincial election, said Tuesday this province is "experiencing a rightist, conservative revolution."

"There is enough money around for it to have quite a fling before it dies," he told a women's Liberal organization in his first major speech since his defeat.

Only two of the four Liberal members were returned in the election.

"We have 22 per cent of the vote but less than four per cent of the Legislature seats," he said.

Mr. Laing said there is a lack in active politics of leaders of industry, intellectuals, trade union officials, doctors and other prominent people. He said these men use "mercenary soldiers" to represent them.

"This game calls for an executive council (cabinet) of overwhelming power, supported by a parliamentary majority composed of nonentities."

"It is the antithesis of self-government. It is a decision to buy security in four-year stretches, to stand erect behind a series of crumbling thrones."

PRAVDA PRAISES TITO; SAYS RIFT CLOSING

(UP and AP Dispatches)
LONDON — Moscow radio, quoting a Pravda editorial, said today Russia and Yugoslavia are "getting closer together" in its first report on relations between the two nations since the Yugoslav president went to the Soviet Union last week.

The broadcast backed up diplomatic reports from Communist East Europe that Russia is attempting to win Tito's support for its strong, new penetration of the Middle East. It praised Yugoslav support of Egypt's takeover of the Suez Canal.

hitless in 21 times at bat—singled into centre.

Carl Furillo tied it up then with a double into left centre, Hodges scoring all the way from first as the ball skidded away from the pursuing Mantle. Furillo made it to third, tagging on Roy Campanella's fly to right, but died there.

Maglie took plenty of time between pitches. He choked off one Yankee threat in the third when Hank Bauer and Slaughter opened with back-to-back singles. But Maglie fired three strikes past Mantle, the major league triple-crown champion, and then got Yogi Berra on a pop and Moose Showton to force Slaughter at second.

double into the right center field corner and after huffing into that base came right home on Sandy Amoros' single to centre.

That made it 6-3—which was the way it ended—but the veteran Maglie still had a heap of trouble before he picked his way to his first world series triumph.

Immediately after the game Manager Walt Alston of the Dodgers announced that big Don Newcombe, 27-game winner for Brooklyn during the regular season, would start Thursday's game. Manager Casey Stengel of the Yankees will go with Don Larsen, who won 11 for the American League champs.

AHEAD TO STAY

The Dodgers moved ahead to stay in the third when, with one away, Reese hit into the hole at short and while McDougald made a fine stop, beat it out for a single. Reese moved to second as Duke Snider singled to short centre. They both held as Robinson fled to Mantle, but then the strapping Hodges picked a 1-1 pitch off the left-handed Ford and sent it screaming into the lower left field stands for his fourth World Series homer and three big runs which put Brooklyn ahead, 5-2.

The Yankees closed the gap slightly in the fourth when the slender Martin poled a homer into the left field seats. But as Johnny Kucks took over the Yankee mound the Dodgers got it back in their half when Campanella opened with a
